WIDOW WANTS ACCUSED GIRL SENT TO CHAIR

"She is a Terrible Woman,"
Sobs Widow Of Jake
Hamon.
SHOWS HATRED
Says She Planned To Throw
Acid In Face Of Clara
Smith.

County Courthouse, Ardmore, Okla., March 11.—"I want to see her sent to the electric chair. Every married woman, every mother should pray for her punishment. She is a terrible woman. No home is safe from her kind. No punishment is bad enough for her."

The woman who uttered these words today was the wife in the triangular drama which ended in the death of Jake L. Hamon, Oklahoma millionaire oil man and Republican national committeeman.

With the jury finally selected, the state today will open attack on Clara Smith Hamon, on trial for the murder of Hamon.

The prosecution which will disclose its evidence today will attempt to prove that Hamon, while dying declared that the woman came to his hotel room, and while lying on the bed, affectionately ruffled his hair with the fingers of one hand and then with a .25 caliber automatic pistol concealed in the other, shot him in the abdomen. It will charge that she purchased the revolver for the special purpose of killing him, that she had threatened to shoot him and had attempted to take his life several times before.

Hates Third Person
The widow of the oil king, who has entered Ardmore's famous murder trial in the role of the wronged wife, makes no attempt to conceal her hatred of the girl who had her husband for 10 years.

She may be imagined as the figure of vengeance as she sits opposite the accused girl in the courtroom. A tall, commanding blonde, she presents a striking contrast to the young woman, who is slim and dark.

Only a few witnessed the incident which occurred in the courtroom late yesterday afternoon just before the final juror had been selected and the court had recessed to give the defendant a few moments outside the crowded and close room.

As the young woman walked away with her mother and sister the widow cried hysterically:

"She forced me to be here and sit where she can stare at me. She is a terrible woman. Once I wanted to throw acid on her face. Now I wish I had."

Then, speaking to a newspaper woman, she said:

"If you were married you would not be writing stories defending that woman. You would know what I have suffered. She hid her face in her handkerchief and sobbed."

Olive Belle, her 11 year old daughter and young Jake, the 13 year old son, clung to her, begging her to calm herself. She half ill and suffering from nervous strain.

LABOR DEPARTMENT TAKES NO ACTION

DAVIS ANNOUNCES HE IS CLOSELY FOLLOWING
DEVELOPMENTS.

Washington, March 11.—The department of labor has taken no action on the appeal of the employees of the large packers for government action to prevent wage reductions. Secretary of Labor Davis said today.

Secretary Davis said he was studying the appeal which had been referred to him by the president and that experts of the department are in close touch with the situation.

The department will use every effort to prevent a strike in the packing industry, Davis said.

He would not say that the matter would be discussed at today's cabinet meeting.

WILL DISCUSS WAGE CUTS AT CONFERENCE

IN NEAR FUTURE

Chicago, March 11.—Conferences to discuss wage cuts, as a preliminary to bringing proposed reductions in pay before the United States Railway Board, have been asked with their employees by virtually all railroads having headquarters in Chicago. These conferences have been asked to conform to the transportation act which specifies that employers and employees must seek to reach an agreement before wage disputes can be brought before the labor board.

Railroads that have asked conferences with their employees include the Santa Fe, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Chicago and Great Western, Chicago and North Western and the Rock Island lines. The Rock Island will meet its employees March 21, in Chicago, and the Northwestern on March 18.

FRANCE DENIES REPORT ON MODIFIED LEAGUE

Of New Plan Have Been Opened—Harding's
Attention On South America.

Paris, March 11.—The French foreign office formally denies a report circulated in the United States that negotiations have been opened with the American state department by the French embassy at Washington in an effort to induce President Harding to accept a modified league of nations.

In denying reports that former Premier Rene Viviani was going to the United States on such a mission, it was pointed out by the foreign office that the league of nations and similar matters are "within the scope of the duties of the French ambassador who may be expected to concern himself with them at the proper time."

Washington, March 11.—If the "world policy" of President Harding could be summarized in a few words, they probably would be:

"Increase American prestige in Latin America and decrease American entanglement in the affairs of Europe."

Those who know the new president best confidently believe that this expresses generally the principles by which America's course in world affairs will be charted for the next four years at least. Those who have talked with President Harding in the week he has been president have been struck with the great importance which he attaches to matters affecting South and Central America.

As evidence of the new administration's determination to strengthen our relations with the republics of the western hemisphere it was pointed out here today that no sooner had Harding been elected than he made a trip to the Mexican border and to Panama to observe at first hand the conditions there and also more important, that the first two moves in the world affairs by the new chief executive were directed, not at chaotic Europe, but at Latin American countries.

Stops Hostilities
The second day the new administration was in office it took prompt action to stop hostilities between Panama and Costa Rica which threatened to create an ugly situation in America's backyard.

On the sixth day the new administration was in office, the president sent a special message to the senate requesting the ratification of the Colombian treaty, which has long hung fire and which has long been a prolific breeder of suspicion and distrust of the United States among the small republics of the south.

President Harding has viewed with concern the encroachments made in South American trade by the nations of Europe.

He has confided to some of them with whom he was conferred at the White House this week, that he is reserving some of his most important diplomatic appointments for the nations to the south. Diplomats are not to be shunted off to South America.

EMPLOYEES TO GO AHEAD ON STRIKE VOTE AS PLANNED

Packing House Workers Will Take Referendum
On Walkout.

Chicago, March 11.—Strike ballots are being printed here today and distribution of the ballots to the 400 locals of packing house unions in the United States and Canada will begin tomorrow. If President Harding does not intervene in the dispute over wage cuts and working hours between packers and their employees a strike vote will be taken.

Plans for obtaining an injunction to prevent the packers from reducing wages on March 14, and taking the first fight direct to the courts which were discussed at the conference of union leaders in Omaha yesterday have been referred to the executive board. This method may be resorted to later.

Secretary Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor has called a conference of delegates of all allied packing house unions for next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in Chicago. Morrison has been advised by President Harding that the plea of the unions has been received and that the matter has been taken up with the department of labor and the department of justice.

NEWTON D. BAKER SAYS WILSON IN LINCOLN'S CLASS

Cleveland, O., March 11.—Lauding his former chief, President Wilson, whom he classed with Washington and Lincoln as the three greatest leaders of America, Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war received last night a welcome home from 2,000 fellow partisans at the Hotel Statler. Other home coming events planned in his honor include a banquet by the Cleveland bar Association Saturday evening.

HOUSE TO END SESSION MARCH 31 IS NOW PLAN

Leaders Want To Adjourn
On That Date Since
Die

SENATE OPPOSED
Believe Legislation Can Be Disposed Of In Three Weeks

Columbus, O., March 11.—House leaders here want to adjourn sine die on March 31. Senate leaders declare final adjournment should be deferred to a later day.

Rep. Crabbe, majority floor leader in the house, with the approval of Speaker Beetham, has introduced a joint resolution providing for sine die adjournment at 5 p. m. March 31.

FIRST GROUP PICTURE OF HARDING CABINET

The first group picture of President Harding and his Cabinet made on the White House lawn. The members of the Cabinet had gathered at the White House for the first Cabinet session. Left to right standing: Albert Fall, Secretary of the Interior; W. H. Hays, Postmaster General; H. M. Daugherty, Attorney General; Henry C. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture; Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce; and James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor. Seated, left to right: John Weeks, Secretary of War; Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury; Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State; President Warren G. Harding; Vice President Calvin Coolidge and Edwin Denby, Secretary of the Navy.

Palmer's Rulings Will Stand Says Attorney General

Liberal Interpretation Of Volstead Law Permitted
By Daugherty

Washington, March 11.—The ruling drafted by J. Mitchell Palmer, retired attorney general, giving a liberal interpretation to the Volstead law and upsetting many existing enforcement regulations, governing the manufacture and sale of non beverage liquors, will be permitted to stay in force. It was announced at the department of justice today.

Attorney General Daugherty said that while he had not digested the Palmer opinion, it was not probable that any action would be taken to reverse either this or other leading opinions drafted by his predecessor. Daugherty said it would not be his policy to review such decisions, because it is contrary to the long established custom of the department of justice.

Redrafting of many of the existing prohibition regulations, and the revocation of others which were held by former Attorney General Palmer to violate the real intent of congress, is under way today. The revision will be taken up in greater earnest with the announcement of a new internal revenue commissioner, now expected daily, and the naming of a new prohibition commissioner.

Now that legal authority has been given for the manufacture of whisky, beer, wine and other liquors for strictly non beverage uses without restriction as to the amount produced and sold by permit holders there will be an increase in the work of prohibition headquarters and of its forces in the field.

GERMANY'S LACK OF OPPOSITION, ERROR DECLARES PREMIER

Country Lacks Great
Statesman Says Lloyd
George

Paris, March 11.—Germany's decision to accept the allies' indemnity penalties without opposition is a mistake, according to Premier Lloyd George of England. The whole trouble with Germany, according to the British premier is that she has no statesmen.

In a London telegram to the Petit Parisien today Premier Lloyd George was quoted as follows:

"One of the greatest difficulties in the present situation is the fact that the Germans have not yet found any statesman. Dr. Simons, the foreign minister, is intelligent and honest, but perhaps is not big enough. Neither during the war nor afterwards did Germany discover statesmen who could inspire the nation. They have either been technicians or workmen like Hugo Stinnes."

Referring to the possibility that the Germans would permit the occupation of their territory by the allies without action the British premier said:

"I feared the Germans would make this mistake. They will discover themselves like a horse that takes a nap in the middle of the road."

Recalling the peace conference Mr. Lloyd George said:

"Clemenceau was in a bad humor, but I also was in a bad humor."

PRESIDENT HARDING MEETS HIS CABINET

PING BOARD IS NOW
UNDER WAY

Washington, March 11.—President Harding met with his cabinet shortly after 11 o'clock today for the second time.

Appointment of a new shipping board is one of the subjects which it is expected will be discussed. Attorney General Daugherty stated that if his opinion was asked, he would urge the appointment of a new shipping board before the senate adjourns on Saturday. It was indicated however, that the president is not prepared to name the new board.

Attorney General Daugherty is learned, has taken no steps to render an opinion, asked by Chairman Benson, as to whether the board still holds office, but has taken the attitude that new appointments will render such an opinion unnecessary.

Communications which the president has sent to the shipping board indicate that he desires the present board to continue to function until a new board is appointed.

SEE COLLAPSE OF REVOLUTION IN SHORT TIME

French Believe Anti Red Outbreak Bound To Fail.

FRANCE STANDS PAT
Revolt Is Not Popular With Masses It Is Pointed Out.

Paris, March 11.—The collapse of the Russian insurrection against the bolsheviks is confidently expected in official circles in less than a fortnight, although it was pointed out today that no country desires the overthrow of the soviets more than France does.

That France has scant reliance upon the success of the anti-red movement was shown by the fact that no attempt was made to send food or war supplies to the insurgents.

"We learned something from the revolutionary attempts of General Deniken and Gen. Wrangel," said a well informed official. "We do not desire to send any more munitions nor food for the reds to swoop up."

Reliable advices received here indicate that this is not the "popular revolt" which has long been expected to break out against Lenin and Trotsky. But it is contended that a great uprising will probably occur by next autumn. It is pointed out that a real uprising must be more than a squabble between politicians for power and must have for its back bone disciplined and well fed soldiers. In the present situation even the leaders of the insurgents are constantly changing on account of quarrels, it has been revealed by dispatches. Gen. Konedlovsky who signed the first rebel manifesto at the fortress of Kronstadt, is now said to have been the head of the counter revolution only in the press report from Helsinki.

PRUSSIAN CABINET TO DECIDE FUTURE OF GERMAN AGENT

German Foreign Minister Explains His Position.

Berlin, March 11.—Foreign Minister Walter Simons, in reporting to the reichstag foreign affairs committee on the course of negotiations in the London indemnity conference admitted that he exceeded the prescribed limits of the German counter proposals but explained that he had been led to do so by the hope of receiving credits, it was learned today.

The German cabinet had previously approved Simons' report upon the indemnity conference. Whether there will be any changes in the cabinet over admission that the foreign minister had acted upon his own initiative in expanding Germany's indemnity offer into a larger sum than approved by the German experts was not apparent. It was said that much would depend upon the complexion of the new Prussian cabinet appointed to succeed the old ministry that resigned yesterday.

Harry Stressemann leader of the German Peoples party and Dr. Helfferich, leader of the Nationalists, and former minister of the Treasury both criticized Dr. Simons at the reichstag foreign affairs committee meeting for offering the allies indemnity of three billion gold marks annually for thirty years. They said that this was beyond Germany's ability to pay.

Defenders of Dr. Simons explained that the foreign minister was touring southern Germany just before the London conference opened and at the time while the committee of experts was meeting in this city. Consequently, he was not closely in touch with the experts which might have led to some misunderstanding.

FRITZ SCHEFF IS GRANTED DIVORCE

GIVEN SEPARATION FROM HER THIRD HUSBAND IN EAST.

Waterbury, Conn., March 11.—Fritz Scheff, who since 1912, has been Mrs. George Anderson, is again Fritz Scheff. She was today granted a divorce from Anderson, her third husband by Judge Kellogg in the superior court in this city. The decree was granted on the ground of intemperance and intolerable cruelty. Anderson did not appear nor was there any contest. Miss Scheff related on the witness stand in detail incidents of her married life with Anderson. The decree gives her the right to resume her maiden name.

NEW STEEL PLANT MERGER ANNOUNCED

Canton, O., March 11.—A $12,000,000 steel plant merger affecting three of Canton's largest corporations was announced here today by officials of the United Alloy Company when it was stated that the concern, the Berger Allied Industries, and the United Furnace Company would be united, if action taken by the boards of directors of the three concerns was ratified by the stockholders at a meeting next month.

The merger will make the new concern one of the largest independent producers in the country.

HUNT BANDITS WHO STOLE BOX WITH $10,000

Sandusky, O., March 11.—A hunt, prosecuted through the night by Sheriff John B. Taylor and Chief of Police C. A. Weingates, failed to develop the slightest clue in the theft of a strong box containing about $10,000 in cash and securities, perpetrated by auto bandits under the eyes of waiting passengers and others at the New York Central station last evening. The authorities, however, are still of the opinion that local talent planned the job and pulled it with the aid of outsiders.

INSURGENTS ARE BEATEN BY REDS AT BIG FORTRESS

Moscow, March 11.—The insurgents' venture at fortress of Kronstadt is collapsing, said an official communique issued by the soviet today. Leon Trotsky, People's commissar for war, has issued a proclamation ordering all mutineers to surrender their arms and to deliver up all non rebel prisoners and to release all the government commissars and other officials who have been captured.

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of twenty-one and am very lonely. I am home every evening except Saturday and Sunday, and then I go out with the girls. I have many girl friends, but they all live so far away they seldom come down in the evening.

I am the only girl at home. I have two brothers younger than myself and a dad for whom I keep house. I also work in a factory all day. In the evening after my work is done and the others are gone or their boy friends come over and play cards I crochet and read for a while, but that does not help to pass the time away any more. I am awfully still when I am in a crowd and always seem sad. I am judged good-looking, but I don't seem to keep any boy friends. I never went steady, for I never met a fellow I loved.

Could you please tell me what to do to pass the time away? And could you tell me how to be lively in a crowd and keep some boy friends?

A LONESOME HEART.

You will have to find some way to keep busy in order to pass the time away without feeling lonesome. Perhaps you would find it interesting to make yourself clothes. Surely your father must be willing to have you spend the money you earn as you see fit. You are old enough to handle the money you earn, and since you keep house you ought to be free from prying toward the upkeep of the home. Your father and brother are blessed in having you to do the work.

Probably the reason you are not more interesting to young men is because you are bored with life and find nothing to interest you. To be interesting you are interested. Reading is such a fine thing that it is a pity you do not enjoy it more.

When you are with young men, do not think about yourself. Think about them and try to imagine what sort of thing they like to talk about. From remarks they make you can judge pretty well what they like to talk about and help to carry on any conversation they start. You must change your attitude toward life and learn to appreciate and enjoy little things. Life is not made up of big events. The person who can appreciate a pretty sky, kind act, interesting face, etc., is happy alone and does not feel the need of friends at all times.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Will you please advise me something suitable to order when eating dinner with a young man friend after working late or attending shows, etc.

AN INTERESTED READER.

If you are having dinner, suggest that the man do the ordering. If he insists that you have what you want and will not order, choose what appeals to you. After theater a club sandwich is good for a light lunch.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a boy steady for four months. I am only sixteen and he is twenty-three. He is very good-looking and all the girls are crazy about him, but he seems to like no one but me.

He does not have a very good reputation with all the people because he drinks when he can get it. But there was never a boy who treated me any nicer.

My father will not let me go with him, but I think so much of him I slip off and go.

DIMPLES.

A girl of your age should rely upon the judgment of her father. To go with a young man with a bad reputation means that before long you will share his reputation and a better class of people will shun you. Do not meet the young man and go with him secretly.

Esch is a former member of Congress, his term having expired on March 4 and was one of the co-authors of the Esch-Cummins law under which the railroads were returned to private control from government control.

Potter was appointed to the interstate commerce commission by former President Wilson but his nomination was never confirmed and his tenure of office expires automatically in March. He is widely known in railway circles. He was nominated for the term to expire Dec. 31, 1923.

XENIA HIGH TEAM PLAYS FIRST GAME SATURDAY MORNING

Central High School basketball team will not play its first game in the seventh annual Greene County tournament at Antioch College, until the opening games Saturday morning when the local team will open the Saturday morning play opposed to Jamestown, at nine o'clock.

This was the result of the drawings of the teams for position, held at one o'clock Friday afternoon in the College Gymnasium. The first game of the tournament started at two o'clock Friday afternoon with the Yellow Springs High School girls team and the Cedarville High School girls' team breaking the ice.

The second game of the afternoon, scheduled to start at 2:50 o'clock, is between the Beavercreek High School and Osborn High School boys. At 3:40 o'clock the Jamestown High and Ross High Girls' teams play, winding up the afternoon games. At seven o'clock Friday evening, Beavercreek High School girls team will meet the winners of the Yellow Springs-Cedarville girls' game, and at 7:50 o'clock the Yellow Springs High School boys team, rated as strong contenders in the tournament, will play its first game with the Ross High team.

Jamestown and Xenia will mix it in the opener, Saturday morning at nine o'clock, and will be followed immediately by the Bowersville and Cedarville High school boys' teams, playing at 9:50 o'clock. At 10:40 o'clock Saturday morning, the Osborn High girls' will play the winners of the Jamestown-Ross High girls' team, and at one o'clock Saturday afternoon Bellbrook will open its tournament play by meeting the winners of the Beavercreek-Osborn High boys' games. Caesar Creek High boys' runners up in the Central High School tournament, will meet the winners of the Yellow Springs-Ross High game at 1:50 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

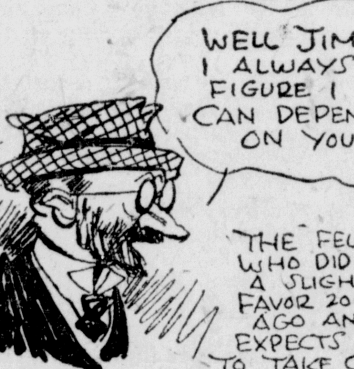

Games after this time have not been drawn as yet, as the contests from then will depend upon the number of teams left in the tournament and not eliminated. Xenia should have an easy time of it Saturday morning with Jamestown, and do posters claim that the locals will go into the finals, with Yellow Springs High for the championship.

The tournament is being covered for the Gazette and Republican, by Arthur Bales, who will furnish the results of the play as quickly as possible to this paper.

BRING UP CASE AFTER NEARLY TEN YEARS' LITIGATION

After almost ten years of litigation, the case of H. W. Owens, Xenia architect, against the village of Wilmington, in which the plaintiff asks for judgment covering architect's fees, alleged due him for that length of time, the hearing of which began in the Wilmington courts, before Judge James W. Tarbell, of Georgetown, Tuesday, has been continued.

All the testimony on both sides was heard before the court adjourned Tuesday, and Judge Tarbell ordered that the attorneys for each side, submit their arguments in the case by written briefs. Attorney W. L. Miller, of this city, who represents Mr. Owens, will offer his brief first after a ten-day period and then G. P. Thorpe, of Wilmington, attorney for the village will file his brief.

The case grew out of the drawing of plans by Mr. Owens, for the Walker Memorial building in Wilmington, which at present is located between the New Martin Hotel and the Murphy Theater and occupied by the G. M. Rice furniture store. Mr. Walker left considerable money to be spent in the erection of a Memorial building to himself and to accommodate the village library.

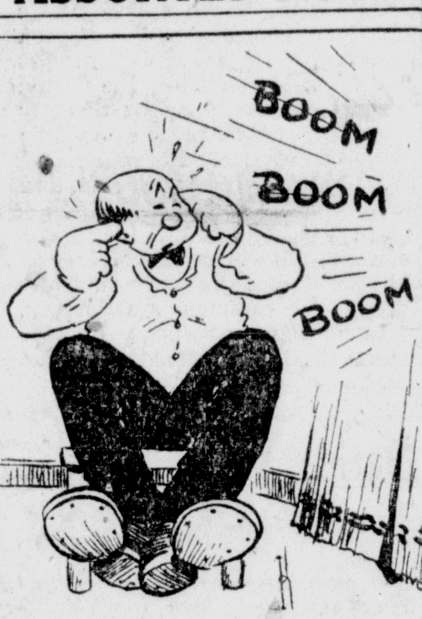

Mr. Owens was retained by the village council to draw up plans for such a building, and he submitted a complete set of plans to that body. Opposition to the plans developed in the village through the desire of some of the citizens to make a store room of the building, and a new village council, opposed to the plans of the local architect was elected.

Since that time, efforts of Mr. Owens to collect the regular architect's fees for the plans proved unavailing, and several years ago he instituted suit through his attorney Mr. Miller, against the village for collection of the amount. Interest in the case having just come to a head with the hearing this week.

TOMATO DISEASE HARMFUL DURING WARM SEASON

A disease causing loss to tomato growers in greenhouses during the past season has been identified by the department of botany at the Ohio Experiment Station as gray mold drop, or Botrytis.

It was found that the disease gained headway whenever moisture conditions in the greenhouse were excessive. The disease caused serious loss in houses which were not ventilated sufficiently.

Proper ventilation, and watering, however, has quickly checked development so that no new infection occurred, except where care was not observed in the removal of decayed fruit and diseased fruit spurs.

Under average greenhouse conditions, the disease does not frequently make its appearance, but during warm seasons similar to that experienced during the past winter, the disease might become quite destructive.

IT'S JUST WONDERFUL, DECLARES MRS. EARLE

"Tanlac Has Made Me Feel Like A Different Person Altogether," Declares Chesapeake Woman.

"I have recommended Tanlac personally to a number of my friends and am glad to give it, is public statement for what it may be worth to others," said Mrs. M. A. Earle, of Chesapeake, Ohio.

"About two years ago my stomach began to give me trouble. My appetite was poor and what little I did eat seemed to do me more harm than good, for gas formed on my stomach and bloated me up terribly. I would wake up in the night with a dry, parched feeling in my throat and in the roof of my mouth. It was seldom that I got a good night's sleep and I had a dull, tired, listless feeling all the time.

"But I declare Tanlac has got me to feeling like a different person altogether. Since taking it I have a fine appetite and can eat what I please and everything agrees with me perfectly, for I never feel a sign of indigestion and I just feel splendid all the time. Tanlac is just wonderful and I can't say too much for it."

Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill, in Yellow Springs by A. Finley, Bowersville, N. K. Bowermeister, Fairfield, Paul P. Young, Osborn, C. J. Logsdon, New Burlington, W. C. Smith.

COURT NEWS

Probate Judge J. Carl Marshall has found that there is no inheritance tax due in the case of the estate of Joseph Garrard. The net value of the estate is placed at $3,972.90 and the widow, Amanda Garrard, executrix, is sole beneficiary during her life time. At her death the estate passes to Anna and J. H. Garrard.

The will of Eliza Hartsock, admitted to Probate by Judge J. Carl Marshall Thursday names her son, Edward G. Hartsock, sole beneficiary of the entire estate after the debts are paid. E. V. Barnhart of Waynesville, is appointed executor and empowered to sell any real estate and to pay all debts. D. F. Smith, Jacob Scott and A. B. Norris, were appointed appraisers by the court.

In the event that the case of Charles Edward Smith against Frank Miller, as administrator of the estate of John Miller, which is being heard by Judge R. L. Gowdy, before the petit jury in Common Pleas Court, is concluded Friday, another damage action involving considerable less money, however, will start immediately.

The case of Timothy Mangan against Cal and Carrie Clark, asking damages in the sum of $150 is docketed to be heard Friday. However the Smith against Miller case was not concluded Thursday evening and the case of Mangan against Clark will probably be delayed until its conclusion. ### SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Menthosulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm.

It never fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

AMERICAN LEGION TO STAGE FORMAL OPENING MARCH 23

Plans for a formal opening and housewarming of the new quarters to Joseph P. Foody Post, No. 95 American Legion are now being made, according to the announcement made at the meeting of the organization Thursday evening.

It is planned to hold the opening on the evening of March 23, and the entertainment committee of the post in conjunction with the Ladies Auxiliary is now working on the program for that day. It is expected that at least one officer of the state organization will be present as a speaker, and the Post promises to make the opening a red letter day in its history.

At the meeting Thursday night, the Adjutant was authorized to secure a number of government rifles and a quantity of ammunition from the arsenal at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, which will be used in military funerals and other occasions.

The announcement of the purchase of a silk flag and standard for the local Post, with funds kindly contributed by the fraternal organizations of the city was made at the meeting Thursday.

TO BE SMART CHILDREN'S EASTER FROCKS MUST BE WHITE

Shops which specialize in children's clothing are featuring white for Easter frocks. It is quite appropriate, too, as it is not only symbolical for the innocence of youth, but for the season of the year. Here are three very attractive models which will delight any little miss. The frock at the left is made of white georgette over a slip of white net. The skirt is trimmed with fluted georgette ruffles and the collar and sleeves are trimmed with the same. A high waistline is

ELECT OFFICERS OF X-ASSOCIATION; ADAIR PRESIDENT

James D. Adair, temporary president of the X organization, an organization of men who won their letters in athletics at Central High was elected permanent president, at the meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night.

James Savage was named vice president of the Association and J. Perry Shumaker was elected secretary and treasurer. The executive committee will consist of the three officers and George Geyer and Dr. C. H. Denner, elected for two years and Fred Schultz and Harold Confer, elected for one year.

The election of these officers followed the reading of the laws by George Geyer, chairman of that committee, and the immediate adoption of the by-laws as prepared by the committee.

Plans for a banquet to be held at the Chamber of Commerce within the next few weeks were discussed, and a committee was named to take charge of preparations for the affair. Arthur Bales was named chairman of the committee which consists also of John Kiernan and Raymond A. Higgins.

In an effort to secure another big high school basketball game before the season closes, a committee consisting of Harold Confer, chairman, and a committee was named to take charge of preparations for the affair. Arthur Bales was named chairman of the committee which consists also of John Kiernan and Raymond A. Higgins.

MERRIMENT AND MUSIC IS OFFERED

The success with which "My Soldier Girl," the musical comedy coming to the Opera House Saturday night, met on its last appearance here last season, assures that patrons of the house will welcome the return of the piece to this city.

It will be good news to local theatergoers also that Billy Moore and Billy Murphy, the two supreme eccentric comedians are still with LeComte and Flesher and will appear in this year's offering at the Opera House. Moore is an Essanay screen product, giving up the silent drama to go into the legitimate five years ago. His companion was raised from a third-rate comedian with LeComte and Flesher's Chicago successes, when his natural ability became known, and has since been playing with Moore.

The cast is elaborately gowned and the production offers much in the way of music and merriment. "My Soldier Girl" plays here through arrangements with the Standard Amusement Company.

Escape the "Stout" Class

An attractive figure is not a matter of size but of correct proportions. The stout women who are never spoken of as "stout" are those who give a little time and thought to proper corseting.

Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets give the wearer an appearance of slenderness. The exclusive Rengo Belt feature gives strength and support where the greatest strain falls—over the abdomen and hips. They have the reputation of being "the most economical reducing corsets ever devised."

EIGHTEEN GREENE COUNTY BASKETBALL TEAMS GATHER FOR ANNUAL TOURNAMENT

Eighteen Greene County basketball teams composed of 11 boys' teams and seven girls' teams, gathered at Antioch College Yellow Springs, Friday at 12 o'clock noon, for the seventh annual county basketball tournament.

In the six previous years in which the tournament has been operated, it is not believed that so much interest has been displayed in it as this year. In fact for the first time in the history of the tournament, it appears that Yellow Springs High School will at least be in the finals, and is being rated with Central High of this city as one of the strongest contenders for the championship in the boys' division.

In the season of 1915, when the basketball tournament was started, Xenia and Jamestown went into the final games, Xenia winning and having the honor of securing first hold of the silver loving cup. 1916, Xenia and Osborn went into the final games of the tournament, and Osborn defeated Xenia. In 1917, the Osborn High lads repeated the same trick, winning the championship for the second time in succession.

In 1918 season, Xenia met Cedarville in the deciding game, and Cedarville was returned winner. In 1919, this situation was reversed, the same two teams meeting in the final game, and Xenia winning over Cedarville. Last year, Beaver Creek High, dark horses in the meet came through and defeated Xenia in the final game.

In the six years that the tournament has been conducted, Xenia has never been outside the money, and

Coach Confer's blue and white team will go into the meet handicapped by the loss of the team of Elmer Owens, whose playing has been protested by the yellow Springs authorities. It is alleged he has passed the 21 year old age limit, and for that reason the local authorities will not play him in the tournament. Marcus McCallister will probably take his place in the line-up.

Play of all games will be decided by drawing alone this year, and should Xenia meet Yellow Springs in the opener, this may turn out to be the deciding game of the series. There will be no fixed games however.

Cincinnati, March 11.—As an indication that the government desires to encourage Ohio River shipping, the U. S. engineers' office here announced that the government seeks shipments amounting to 600 tons for points between Cincinnati and St. Louis.

FINDS BRIDE-TO-BE WITH WRECK VICTIMS

Porter, Ind., March 11.—George Ganst, fifty five, a widower, was waiting for Mrs. Theodosia Haskins, fifty-five, a Chicago widow, in Niles, Mich., when the news of the recent Michigan Central-New York rail horror here reached him. She was to have arrived for their wedding.

Reaching here, Ganst hastened to the morgue. He was unable to recognize any of the bodies, but his head dropped when he saw a ring on the finger of one. It was the engagement token he had given Mrs. Haskins. A pearl necklace and $100 in cash she carried were missing. After identifying the ring, he stared in silence at the body, then gasped.

"Why the hair was black, very black. Look at it now."

POISONING DYES IN FURS CAUSE SKIN POISONING

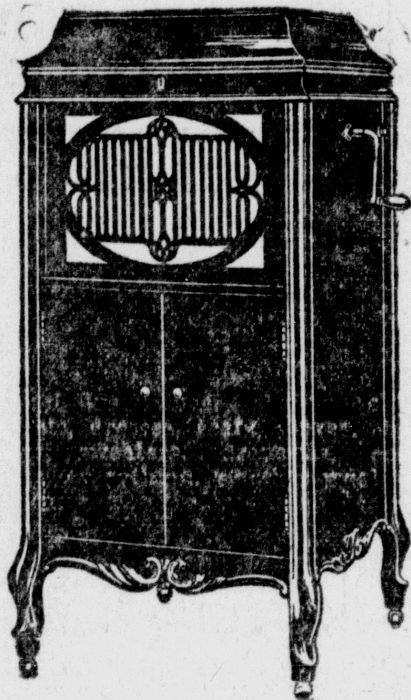

Chicago, March 11.—Now it's "fur poisoning."

Health Commissioner John Dill Robertson is investigating eleven cases of skin disease reported here which is believed to have been caused by poisonous dyes in women's furs. An effort also is being made to find the manufacturer of the tainted furs.

"So far," said Dr. J. P. Kilecourse, city pure food expert, "we have been unable to ascertain that there are any of these poisonous furs handled in Chicago. Apparently they all come from New York. Chicago concerns which make furs into garments buy the skins either in St. Louis or New York. The authorities of these two cities should investigate the use of cheap and poisonous fur dyes."

MANUFACTURER IS FREED

New York, March 11.—Julius Schwill, wealthy malt manufacturer of Chicago detained by the police on suspicion after money orders stolen from the American Express Co. were alleged to have been found in his possession by Magistrate Prothingham, who said felonious intent was not established.

Five Rooms In Four

THE BED DAVENPORT

Increases home capacity, decreases rent and fuel bills. Wonderful thing, isn't it, in these days of house shortage, fuel shortage, high rents, high cost of building and high cost of coal?

A bed davenport will grace your living room, provide a place for three to sit in comfort and for one to lounge at ease during the day. In addition, it will provide sleeping accommodations for two when not in use as a seat.

In effect a bed davenport adds a room to your home; in fact, it reduces your rent and fuel expense. A smaller place at a lower rental—or at a lower cost to build—is made to supply the accommodations of a larger place.

Come and see them. Make rooms do double duty until building catches up.

DOES ADVERTISING PAY-- WHO?

Six Profits
Lost Energy
The Big Answer
Out of the Picture
Millions Like You

ON BUYING

It's a question you sometimes hear, even now—"Does advertising pay?"

Invariably however, as it is asked, it means "Does advertising pay the advertiser?" when after all that isn't the most important thing at all.

The really vital question—the one that goes to the heart of the whole subject—is whether advertising pays you, the buyer, and the millions of others like you who make up the great American market.

If advertising does not pay you, then it can never really pay the manufacturers, merchants and others who to-day show their faith in it to the extent of many millions of dollars.

If it did not pay you, the ultimate consumer, it could never have become a permanent force in the nation's business life.

Unless there is in advertising some definite, unmistakable advantage for you as a purchaser you would long ago have ceased to respond to it, and it would have begun to fade out of the picture.

That thousands are now being spent on advertising where not long ago there were but hundreds—that the nation's advertising appropriation mounts year by year to magnificent figures—that advertising is now regarded as a permanent and important factor in a vast number of various kinds of businesses, large and small—is more than an indication of the answer to the question "Does advertising pay you?"

It pays you in the protection it affords against the unscrupulous.

It pays you in time and energy saved when you do your buying.

It pays you by improving the character of selling and service.

It pays you by establishing definite and higher standards of quality.

It pays you by keeping you constantly informed of new products that will save your money, your time or your labor—products that will promote your welfare—products that will add to your happiness.

These are some of the profits which advertising places in your grasp. To take them you need do but two things—read advertising and buy advertised goods—goods with the name or the brand of the maker plainly stamped upon them, a visible pledge of his integrity and honesty of purpose. Advertising is not only a pro-

THEY WILL BE MISSED IN DES MOINES WHEN THEY JOIN NEW CABINET CIRCLE

Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, at desk, and her daughter, Miss Mary.

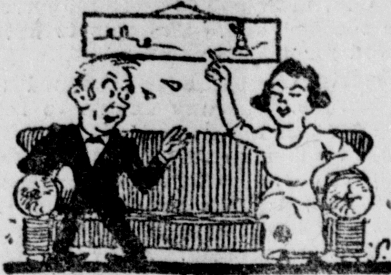

This is the latest picture of Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, wife of the new secretary of agriculture, and their daughter, Miss Mary Wallace. The hospitality of the Wallace home is well known in Des Moines and Mrs. Wallace presides as a very gracious hostess. She likes people, is well up on public affairs and will probably be one of the leaders among the cabinet circles. Miss Mary is a vivacious girl who adds much life to the Wallace household. They will both be missed by their Des Moines friends.

DINNER STORIES

Yesterday everything had been happy. Tonight they sat at the extreme end of the sofa, in unbroken silence.

Harold could not fathom the cause. Had he not written a poem in his honor?

"Mr. Holt," said Ethel at length, "do you know that the feet of the Statue of Liberty, in New York harbor, measure 16 feet 5 inches?"

"So I have heard," "The waist is 35 feet around," she continued, giving him an icy stare. "The nose is 4 feet 6 inches long; the mouth is a yard across; the thickness of the head is 20 feet. Did you know these facts?"

"Yes," "Then will you kindly explain," she demanded frigidly, "why you state in your poem that I remind you of the Statue of Liberty?"

"It is remarkable," said Mr. Gruntler, "how mean some people are. I had with me on a fishing trip two friends, who evidently were familiar with my reputation as an angler."

"Before starting one of them made the following suggestion: 'We will agree that the first man that catches a fish must treat the crowd.'"

"I assented to this, and we started. Now, those two fellows both had a bite and were too mean to pull them up."

"I suppose you lost, then?" remarked the friend.

"Oh, no," replied Mr. Gruntler. "I didn't have any bait on my hook!"

The weary traveler and his wife arrived at the country inn after a long and tiresome tramp through the country. The husband went to the innkeeper and asked him what he could do for him.

"I am very sorry," replied the innkeeper, "but I have but one meal left."

CAMERA SAYS BUSINESS IS GOOD IN NEW ENGLAND

Crowd of shoppers on Tremont street in Boston.

The pessimistic merchant may cheer up a bit if he will study this photograph which was taken last week in Boston. If the camera does not lie, it means that business is pretty brisk in New England, for this is a group of shoppers on Tremont street. It does not look much like "depression," does it? Many experts now believe the industrial crisis is past.

Buick Valve In Head Motor Cars

Today, as never before, a motor car is purchased as a dividend earning investment—dividends of utility, service, economy and resale value.

The twenty years performance record of Buick Cars and the power and reliability of the famed Buick Valve-In-Head motor are thoroughly familiar to the public and explain, in a measure why Buick is so generally recognized as a sound investment.

The low stream-lines of the 1921 Models give these cars an appearance of grace and dignity. A greater roominess of tonneau and space provided adds motoring comfort. Both elements are well expressed in the new 1921 Models.

When you buy a Buick car you are assured of service wherever you go, as there are Buick Service Stations in any City.

Buick owners will get better service by going where they see the Buick sign.

AWAKE INTEREST LOCALLY IN ORDER WHICH MEETS FRIDAY

Advertising and soliciting carried on here by H. B. Galloway, national organizer for the Patriotic Order of Sons of America, from state headquarters at Dayton, has served to arouse considerable interest in the meeting of that organization to be held in the Assembly Room of the Court House Friday evening at eight o'clock.

The order is campaigning to awaken the people to the project of restricted immigration and is also distributing literature to awaken Americans to the perils the country is facing if radicalism and bolshevism are permitted to get a foothold. The Order's work along this line has received the highest commendation from Governor Sproul of Pennsylvania and former U. S. Attorney General Palmer. The meeting Friday night is public and everyone is invited.

DRAMATIC TURN TAKEN BY TRIAL

Mingo County Courthouse, Williams, W. Va., March 10.—"Thou art the man!"

The trigger trial is taking a dramatic turn. Accused who turned accuser is now accused again. The defense has begun to train its guns on Isaac Brewer who was originally indicted with Sid Hatfield and 16 others but was freed from turning state's evidence.

One by one, witnesses are taking the stand for the defense and One did so yesterday, two in today's forenoon session. All three flatly charged they saw Isaac Brewer kill Detective Albert Felts, for whose murder the 17 men from Matewan are being tried for their lives. All three admitted having withheld this from the grand jury because they "didn't want to indict Brewer." Now that Brewer is a star witness for the prosecution they wouldn't swear a lie for him.

THE WOMAN HE MARRIED

A BOY'S KEEN INTUITION
Chapter '12
Junior had gone back to school and life seemed suddenly dreary, cold, and sorrowful. I was terribly unhappy over Dick, but when Junior was with me I could not be entirely miserable. His boyish gaiety, his high spirits were a constant joy to me.
Yet in a way I did not regret his going. He was old enough now to notice when I was hurt or worried, said and anxious. At times I thought he suspected the cause. Several times he had made slangy, boyish, disparaging remarks about Juanita. They were made in a joking way, yet I thought that underneath the fun there lay a certain knowledge.
In every way I could I had tried to combat this idea. I invited Juanita to luncheon to dinner, and to play bridge in the evening. I laughed at her and with her. I talked openly before them and Junior of their intimacy when writing their novel—a sore spot with Dick if not with Juanita. But much as I loved Junior, glad as I had been to have him with me, it was a relief in a way to let him go. His sharp eyes could no longer be upon his father. I had imagined once or twice that he had lost some of the respect in which he always had held Dick some of the pride in his accomplishments. Yet it had been nothing tangible, simply boyish nonsense. So I tried to assure myself.
"We must be very careful now, Dick, Junior is becoming very observing," I remarked as we returned from the station after bidding him goodbye. He would not be at home again for several months.
"Careful of what?"
"Of what we say and do. It is queer the notions a boy gets. He used to be fond of Juanita, but I really think he dislikes her—sees through her."
"Sees through her?"—in a questioning way, yet as if he scarcely realized what he said.
"Yes, her playing to the gallery—as he puts it—wearing freak clothes, doing things so outrageous in many ways. Boys are rather old-fashioned, I guess—boys of Junior's age."
It may have been beneath a woman's a wife's, dignity to disparage a rival as I was doing. But it seemed to me the only way I could save my pride, and not let Dick know I was jealous, fearful.
I knew only too well that if I ever let him know I had seen Juanita in his arms it would be hard to live with him, afterward hard for both of us. I was not the sort who could ignore such knowledge that could go on as if I did not know it—if Dick were aware I knew of his disloyalty—although I did not yet give it that name. I called it his foolish infatuation, when I did name it.
I worked intermittently at this time. I refused contracts that took me too much from home.
"Come on, Dick let's take a walk," I would often now interrupt him, where before I had hesitated. "You have lots of time to write. Let's take life leisurely for a while."
"But," he argued, "you work pretty steadily, why not me?"
"Yes, I admit. I do work fairly steadily, but you over-worked on your book. And having Juanita with you, so much was wearing for, of course, you would have many times done much better work alone. You see, there is where I have the advantage, coming and she is wise to do it." As usual after making such a "catty" remark I praised her.
"Tomorrow—Nan and Juanita Discuss Marriage."

WIDOW WANTS ACCUSED GIRL SENT TO CHAIR

"She is a Terrible Woman,"
Sobs Widow Of Jake
Hamon.
SHOWS HATRED
Says She Planned To Throw
Acid In Face Of Clara
Smith.

County Courthouse, Ardmore, Okla., March 11.—"I want to see her sent to the electric chair. Every married woman, every mother should pray for her punishment. She is a terrible woman. No home is safe from her kind.
No punishment is had enough for her."

The woman who uttered these words today was the wife in the triangular drama which ended in the death of Jake L. Hamon, Oklahoma millionaire oil man and Republican national committeeman.

With the jury finally selected, the state today will open attack on Clara Smith Hamon, on trial for the murder of Hamon.

The prosecution which will disclose its evidence today will attempt to prove that Hamon, while dying declared that the woman came to his hotel room, and while lying on the bed, affectionately ruffled his hair with the fingers of one hand and then with a 25 caliber automatic pistol concealed in the other, shot him in the abdomen. It will charge that she purchased the revolver for the special purpose of killing him, that she had threatened to shoot him and had attempted to take his life several times before.

Hates Third Person
The widow of the oil king, who has entered Ardmore's famous murder trial in the role of the wronged wife, makes no attempt to conceal her ha-red of the girl who had her husband for 10 years.

She may be imagined as the figure of vengeance as she sits opposite the accused girl in the courtroom. A tall, commanding blonde, she presents a striking contrast to the young woman, who is slim and dark.

Only a few witnessed the incident which occurred in the courtroom late yesterday afternoon just before the final juror had been selected and the court had recessed to give the defendant a few moments outside the crowded and close room.

As the young woman walked away with her mother and sister the widow cried hysterically:

"She forced me to be here and sit where she can stare at me.

"She is a terribly woman. Once I wanted to throw acid on her face. Now
I wish I had."

Then, speaking to a newspaper woman,
she said:

"If you were married you would not be writing stories of ending that woman.
You would know what I have suffered. She hid her face in her handkerchief and sobbed."

Olive Belle, her 11 year old daughter and young Jake, the 18 year old son, clung to her, crying for her to calm herself. She half hid and suffering from nervous strain.

DAVIS ANNOUNCES HE IS CLOSELY FOLLOWING
DEVELOPMENTS.

Washington, March 11.—The department of labor has taken no action on the appeal of the employees of the large packers for government intervention to prevent wage reductions. Secretary Davis said today.

Secretary Davis said he was studying the appeal which had been referred to him by the president and that experts of the department are in close touch with the situation.

The department will use every effort to prevent a strike in the packing industry, Davis said.

He would not say that the matter would be discussed at today's cabinet meeting.

Chicago, March 11.—Conferences to discuss wage cuts, as a preliminary to bringing proposed reductions in pay before the United States Railway Board, have been asked with their employees by virtually all railroads having headquarters in Chicago. These conferences have been asked to conform to the transportation act which specifies that employers and employees must seek to reach an agreement before wage disputes can be brought before the labor board.

Railroads that have asked conferences with their employees include the Santa Fe, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Chicago and Great Western, Chicago and Northwestern and the Rock Island lines.

The Rock Island will meet its employees March 21, in Chicago, and the Northwestern on March 18.

FRANCE DENIES REPORT ON MODIFIED LEAGUE

Of New Plan Have Been Opened—Harding's Attention On South America.

Paris, March 11.—The French foreign office formally denies a report circulated in the United States that negotiations have been opened with the American state department by the French embassy at Washington in an effort to induce President Harding to accept a modified league of nations.

In denying reports that former Premier, Rene Viviani was going to the United States on such a mission, it was pointed out by the foreign office that the league of nations and similar matters are "within the scope of the duties of the French ambassador who may be expected to concern himself with them at the proper time."

Washington, March 11.—If the "world policy" of President Harding could be summarized in a few words, they probably would be:

"Increase American prestige in Latin-America and decrease American entanglement in the affairs of Europe."

Those who know the new president best confidently believe that this expresses generally the principles by which America's course in world affairs will be charted for the next four years at least. Those who have talked with President Harding in the week he has been president have been struck with the great importance which he attaches to matters affecting South and Central America.

As evidence of the new administration's determination to strengthen our relations with the republics of the western hemisphere it was pointed out here today that no sooner had Harding been elected than he made a trip to the Mexican border and to Panama to observe at first hand the conditions there and also more important, that the first two moves in the world affairs by the new chief executive were directed, not at chaotic Europe, but at Latin-American countries.

Stops Hostilities
The second day the new administration was in office, it took prompt action to stop hostilities between Panama and Costa Rica which threatened to create an ugly situation in America's backyard.

On the sixth day the new administration was in office, the president sent a special message to the senate requesting the ratification of the Colombian treaty, which has long hung fire and which has suspicion and distrust of the United States among the small republics of the south.

President Harding has viewed with concern the encroachments made in South American trade by the nations of Europe.

He has confided to some of them with whom he was conferred at the White House this week, that he is reserving some of his most important diplomatic appointments for the nations to the south. Diplomats are not to be shunted off to South America

just because the administration has no other place for them.

While actual hostilities between Panama and Costa Rica have ceased, there still is a situation there fraught with considerable peril. This will be enhanced if the league of nations enters the situation in the attempted role of mediator. Both Costa Rica and Panama are members of the league, and information has reached the state department that the latter already has taken the matter up with league headquarters in Geneva.

House To End
Session March 31 Is Now Plan

Leaders Want To Adjourn
On That Date Since
Die

SENATE OPPOSED
Believe Legislation Can Be Disposed Of In Three Weeks

Columbus, O., March 11.—House leaders here want to adjourn sine die on March 31. Senate leaders declare final adjournment should be deferred to a later day.

Rep. Crabbe, majority floor leader in the house, with the approval of Speaker Beetham, has introduced a joint resolution providing for sine die adjournment at 5 p. m.
March 31.

House leaders express the belief that tax measures can be disposed of within the next three weeks together with the appropriation bills and the Dunn bill reorganizing state departments. The house finance committee expects to submit the big appropriation measure Monday, have it pass the house promptly and message it to the senate Wednesday. It is expected that the house reorganization committee will report out the Dunn reorganization bill next Thursday the house passing, or defeating it, Friday or Saturday.

Vote On Gordon Bill
Tuesday has decided to vote
Tuesday on the question of passage of the Gordon bill, giving justices of the peace jurisdiction in probation cases in cities; the Bolan bill granting authority to confiscate vehicles used in transporting liquors unlawfully, and the McCoy bill, prohibiting the exhibition of crimes in motion pictures.

By a vote of 74 to 23, the house adopted the resolution by Rep. Robinson, Ironton, memorializing congress to amend the Esch-Cummings railroad act so as to insure jurisdiction of the state utilities commission over the intra state traffic.
The resolution now goes to the senate.

Provisions for an investigation of canals throughout Ohio to eliminate danger of overflow during high waters is made in a joint resolution introduced by Senator Kry-der, Henry county. Senator Brand, Champaign county, offered a bill to amend the school law passed by the last legislature so as to eliminate the state levy of 1.3 mills and to provide a better method of distribution of funds for the weak school districts.

TROUBLE OVER CILICIA HAS BEEN SETTLED DECLARES
PREMIER BRIAND

London, March 11.—Before his departure for Paris today Premier Briand of France, announced that agreement with the Turkish nationalists regarding Cilicia. The chief terms are:

Cilicia as soon as possible.
2.—There will be an exchange of French and Turkish nationalist prisoners.
3.—Hostilities will cease immediately through Cilicia.
4.—Measures will be effected to secure the safety of Armenian and other prisoners.
Cilicia lies in the vilayet of Adana on the border of Syria and Anatolia.

MEXICAN OFFICIAL SLAIN
El Paso, March 11.—Colonel Angel Gaxiola, chief of the department of the interior of Mexico and chief of staff under Former Provisional President Adolfo de La Huerta, was assassinated in Mexico City today according to a telegram received today by F. A. Pesqueira, Mexican consul at El Paso. The assassin has not yet been caught, the message stated.

The first group picture of President Harding and his Cabinet made on the White House lawn. The members of the Cabinet had gathered at the White House for the first Cabinet session. Left to right standing:

Albert Fall, Secretary of the Interior; W. H. Hays, Postmaster General; H. M. Daugherty, Attorney General; Henry C. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture; Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, and James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor. Seated, left to right: John Weeks, Secretary of War; Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury; Charles and Edwin Denby, Secretary of the Navy.

PALMER'S RULINGS WILL STAND SAYS ATTORNEY GENERAL

Liberal Interpretation Of
Volstead Law Permitted
By Daugherty

Washington, March 11.—The ruling drafted by T. Mitchell Palmer, retired attorney general giving a liberal interpretation to the Volstead law and upsetting many existing enforcement regulations, governing the manufacture and sale of non beverage liquors, will be permitted to stay in force. It was announced at the department of justice today. Attorney General Daugherty said that while he had not digested the Palmer opinion, it would not be his policy to review such decisions, because it is contrary to the long established custom of the department of justice.

Redrafting of many of the existing prohibition regulations, and the revocation of others which were held by former Attorney General Palmer to violate the real intent of congress, is under way today. The revision will be taken up in greater earnest with the announcement of a new internal revenue commissioner, now expected daily, and the naming of a new prohibition commissioner.

Now that legal authority has been given for the manufacture of whisky, beer, wine and other liquors for strictly non beverage uses, without restriction as to the amount produced and sold by permit holders there will be an increase in the work of prohibition headquarters and of its forces in the field.

In a London telegram to the Petit Parisien today Premier Lloyd George
was quoted as follows:

"One of the greatest difficulties in the present situation is the fact that the Germans have not yet found any statesmen. Dr. Simons, the foreign minister, is intelligent and honest,
but perhaps is not big enough. Neither
during the war nor afterwards did Germany discover statesmen who could inspire the nation. They have either been technicians or workmen
like Hugo Stinnes."

Referring to the possibility that the Germans would permit the occupation of their territory by the allies
without action the British premier said:

"I feared the Germans would make themselves like a horse that takes a nap in the middle of the road."

Recalling the peace conference Mr.
Lloyd George said:

"Clemenceau was in a bad humor,
but I also was in a bad humor."

FARM LEGISLATION TOPIC OF MEETING

O. E. BRADFUTE PRESENT AT CONFERENCE IN COLUMBUS

Columbus, O., March 11.—Proposed legislation affecting farmers, including taxation matters, were discussed here today at a conference of leaders of the various organizations of farmers.

O. E. Bradfute, Xenia, president of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation; L. J. Taber, Barnesville, master of the Ohio State Grange and
C. A. Dyer, Columbus, field secretary of the Ohio Home Protective League explained their views. Masters and presidents, also voiced the desires of the members in the various sections of the state.

PRESIDENT WILL APPOINT TWO NEW MEMBERS OF BODY

WASHINGTON, March 11.—President Harding will appoint two members of the interstate commerce commission today, it was announced at the White House. The president will also appoint a surgeon general of the navy.

The interstate commerce commissioners are to fill vacancies.
There will remain two vacancies after today's appointments, as the terms of three commissioners were unconfirmed by the last congress and Commissioner Wooley's term has expired.

ANTI-BOLSHEVIK FACTIONS UNITE AGAINST SOVIET

London, March 11.—All of the Russian anti-bolshevik factions are uniting in the formation of a coalition government at Reval with Gen. Volynski as premier, according to a Central News dispatch from Helsingfors today.

Leaders in the Reval government say that there will be a movement against the soviet in Russia at the earliest possible moment.

New Water Supply To Be Available In Fortnight

Xenia Will Have Use Of New Water Works Plant Within Two Weeks, Riddle Tells City Commission Thursday Night—Pumps Connected Monday.

Xenia city water patrons will be using the fresh, new and pure supply within two weeks.

This was the principal point of interest in the report on the water works situation presented by City Manager Riddle at the regular meeting of the City Commission Thursday evening.

Mr. Riddle's report showed that while the new pumps and motors will probably be started the first of next week, it will be about two weeks at least before this fresh supply is conveyed into the city, in such a quantity as to be used by the water patrons over the city.

The new plant near Old Town is now completed according to the Manager's report. The pumps have been inspected by the erection engineer of the Dravo-Doyle Company, of Indianapolis, which concern had the contract for furnishing the pumps and motors. Friday it was expected that the motors would be started, disconnected from the pumps, and that the state inspector of electric wiring would examine the plant, with officials of the Dayton Power and Light Company witnessing the starting of the motors.

The General Manager of the Dravo-Doyle Company is expected here, either Monday or Tuesday, at which time the pumps will be connected, and in the presence of the members of the city commission, the machinery in the new water plant will be started.
It will then be about two weeks before the supply is available in the city.

The new supply will come as a distinct relief to the people who have had to use the city water here. With both the Cincinnati pike and the Springfield pike supplies, on the verge of contamination, a large amount of chlorine has been necessary to keep the water free from disease germs, and the result is that the water looks like milk and reeks of the chlorine taste.

With the new supply, the city will have an abundant water source, that will furnish much more water than this city needs for years and years.
The new supply, moreover, is tested pure and passed upon by the state board of health, which insures that the danger of infection and the spread of germs through the water is now about passed.

GERMANY'S LACK OF OPPOSITION, ERROR DECLARES PREMIER

George

Paris, March 11.—Germany's decision to accept the allies' indemnity penalties without opposition is a mistake, according to Premier Lloyd George of England. The whole trouble with Germany, according to the British premier is that she has no statesmen.

In a London telegram to the Petit Parisien today Premier Lloyd George
was quoted as follows:

"One of the greatest difficulties in
the present situation is the fact that
the Germans have not yet found any statesmen. Dr. Simons, the foreign minister, is intelligent and honest,
but perhaps is not big enough. Neither
during the war nor afterwards

could inspire the nation. They have
like Hugo Stinnes."

Referring to the possibility that
the Germans would permit the occupation of their territory by the allies
without action the British premier said:

"I feared the Germans would make
themselves like a horse that takes a
nap in the middle of the road."

Recalling the peace conference Mr.
Lloyd George said:

"Clemenceau was in a bad humor,
but I also was in a bad humor."

PRESIDENT HARDING MEETS HIS CABINET

PING BOARD IS NOW

Washington, March 11.—President Harding met with his cabinet shortly after 11 o'clock today for the second time.

Appointment of a new shipping board is one of the subjects which it is expected will be discussed. Attorney General Daugherty stated that if his opinion was asked, he would urge the appointment of a new shipping board before the senate adjourns on Saturday. It was indicated, however, that the president is not prepared to name the new board.

Attorney General Daugherty it is learned, has taken no steps to render an opinion, asked by Chairman Benson, as to whether the board still holds office, but has taken the attitude that new appointments will render such an opinion unnecessary.

Communications which the president has sent to the shipping board indicate that he desires the present board to continue to function until a new board is appointed.

FRANCE BELIEVE ANTI RED OUTBREAK BOUND TO FAIL.

Revolt Is Not Popular With
Out.

Paris, March 11.—The collapse of the Russian insurrection against the bolsheviks is confidently expected in official circles in less than a fortnight, although it was pointed out today that no country desires the overthrow of the soviets more than France does.

That France has scant reliance upon the success of the anti-red movement was shown by the fact that no attempt was made to send food or war supplies to the insurgents.

"We learned something from the revolutionary attempts of General Deniken and Gen. Wrangel," said a well informed official. "We do not desire to send any more munitions nor food for the reds to swoop up."
Reliable advices received here indicate that this is not the "popular revolt" which has long been expected to break out against Lenin and Trotsky. But it is contended that a great uprising will probably occur by next autumn. It is pointed out that a real uprising must be more than a squabble between politicians for power and must have for its back bone disciplined and well fed soldiers. In the present situation even the leaders of the insurgents are constantly changing on account of quarrels, it has been revealed by dispatches. Gen. Koslovsky who signed the first rebel manifesto at the fortress of Kron-stadt, is now said to have been the head of the counter revolution only in the press report from Helsingfors.

PRUSSIAN CABINET TO DECIDE FUTURE OF GERMAN AGENT

German Foreign Minister Explains His Position.

Berlin, March 11.—Foreign Minister Walter Simons, in reporting to the reichstag foreign affairs committee upon the course of negotiations in the London indemnity conference admitted that he exceeded the prescribed limits of the German counter proposals but explained that he had been led to do so by the hope of receiving credits, it was learned today.

The German cabinet had previously approved Simons' report upon the indemnity conference.
Whether there will be any changes in the cabinet over admission that the foreign minister had acted upon his own initiative in expanding Germany's indemnity offer into a larger sum than approved by the German experts was not apparent.
It was said that much would depend upon the complexion of the new Prussian cabinet appointed to succeed the old ministry that resigned yesterday.

Harry Stressemann leader of the German Peoples party and Dr. Helfferich, leader of the Nationalists, and former minister of the Treasury both criticized Dr. Simons at the reichstag foreign affairs committee meeting for offering the allies indemnity of three billion gold marks annually for thirty years.
They said that this was beyond
Germany's ability to pay.

Defenders of Dr. Simons explained that the foreign minister was touring southern Germany just before the London conference opened and at the time while the committee of experts was meeting in this city.
Consequently, he was not closely in touch with the experts which might have led to some misunderstanding.

FRITZ SCHEFF IS GRANTED DIVORCE

WATERBURY, Conn., March 11.—
Fritz Scheff, who since 1912, has been
Mrs. George Anderson's again Fritz Scheff. She was today granted a divorce from Anderson, her third husband by Judge Kellogg in the superior court in this city. The decree was granted on the ground of intemperance and intolerable cruelty. Anderson did not appear nor was there any contest. Miss Scheff related on the witness stand in detail incidents of her married life with Anderson. The decree gives her the right to resume her maiden name.

NEW STEEL PLANT MERGER ANNOUNCED

Canton, O., March 11.—A $12,000,000 steel plant merger affecting three of Canton's largest corporations was announced here today by officials of the United Alloy Company when it was stated that the concern, the Berger Alloy Industries, and the United Furnace Company would be united, if action taken by the boards of directors of the three concerns was ratified by the stockholders at a meeting next month.

The merger will make the new concern one of the largest independent producers in the country.

HUNT BANDITS WHO STOLE BOX WITH $10,000

SANDUSKY, O., March 11.—A hunt conducted through the night by Sheriff John B. Taylor and Chief of Police C. A. Weingates, failed to develop the slightest clue in the theft of a strong box containing about $10,- 000 in cash and securities, perpetrated by auto bandits under the eyes of waiting passengers and others at the New York Central station last evening. The authorities, however, are still of the opinion that local talent planned the job and pulled it with the aid of outsiders.

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of twenty-one and am very lonely. I am home every evening except Saturday and Sunday, and then I go out with the girls. I have many girl friends, but they all live so far away they seldom come down in the evening.

I am the only girl at home. I have two brothers younger than myself and a dad for whom I keep house. I also work in a factory all day. In the evening after my work is done and the others are gone or their boy friends come over and play cards I crochet and read for a while, but that does not help to pass the time away any more.

I am awfully still when I am in a crowd and always seem sad. I am judged good-looking, but I don't seem to keep any boy friends. I never went steady, for I never met a fellow I loved.

Could you please tell me what to do to pass the time away? And could you tell me how to be lively in a crowd and keep some boy friends.

about them and try to imagine what sort of thing they like to talk about. From remarks they make you can judge pretty well what they like to talk about and help to carry on any conversation they start.

You must change your attitude toward life and learn to appreciate and enjoy little things. Life is not made up of big events. The person who can appreciate a pretty sky, kind act, interesting face, etc., is happy alone and does not feel the need of friends at all times.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Will you please advise me something suitable to order when eating dinner with a young man friend after working late or attending shows, etc.

AN INTERESTED READER.
If you are having dinner, suggest that the man do the ordering. If he insists that you have what you want and will not order, choose what appeals to you. After the waiter a club sandwich is good for a light lunch.

A LONESOME HEART.
You will have to find some way to keep busy in order to pass the time away without feeling lonesome. Perhaps you would find it interesting to make yourself clothes. Surely your father must be willing to have you spend the money you earn as you see fit. You are old enough to handle the money you earn, and since you keep house you ought to be free from prying toward the upkeep of the home. Your father and brother are blessed in having you to do the work.

Probably the reason you are not more interesting to young men is because you are bored with life and find nothing to interest you. To be interesting you are interested. Reading is such a fine thing that it is a pity you do not enjoy it more.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a boy steady for four months. I am only sixteen and he is twenty-three. He is very good-looking and all the girls are crazy about him, but he seems to like no one but me.

He does not have a very good reputation with all the people because he drinks when he can get it. But there was never a boy who treated me any nicer.

My father will not let me go with him, but I think so much of him I slip off and go.

DIMPLES.
A girl of your age should rely upon the judgment of her father. To go with a young man with a bad reputation means that before long you will share his reputation and a better class of people will shun you. Do not meet the young man and go with him secretly.

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

Mrs. Rosalie Loew Whitney of Brooklyn is to be appointed a member of the industrial board within the new state labor department of New York state. Her selection has been practically determined upon by Governor Miller. There will be two other members on that board both men. The pay for her services will be $8,000 a year and the term is for six years.

The chief duties of the industrial board are two in number: (1) The application and modification of rules of the labor law, (2) administration of the workmen's compensation law, adjustment of claims, supervision of agreements, settlements etc. In fact it will take over all the quasi-judicial functions formerly exercised by the whole industrial commission.

New York state has been very liberal with appointments for women.

Some Figures
What American women will spend on jewelry, "beautifiers" and feminine fables generally during 1921 would pay either half the interest on the national debt or the entire appropriation for the navy, including new ship construction.

More than $462,000,000 was spent for candy during 1920, the larger part of it from the pocket-books of women.

During 1920 the number of cigarettes sold in the United States was 50,400,000,000; in 1913 the number was 14,000,000,000.

During 1920 the government received $25,000,000 in taxes on women's cigaret cases and other articles of jewelry.

During 1920 the importations of precious stones were valued at $72,000,000 the valuation of pearls being $7,000,000.

Face powder during 1920 was sold to the extent of $50,000,000—enough money to build the greatest dreadnought afloat, and a good-sized fleet of submarine chasers also.

Citizens, no doubt including burglars and holdup men, spent $46,447,934 in 1920 for firearms upon which the tax item was over $4,500,000.

More than $23,117,000 was spent for tennis rackets, golf clubs and other sporting articles in the first six months of the present fiscal year as compared with only $29,500,000 for the entire preceding year.

In the last fiscal year $152,112,142 was spent for articles made of fur, mostly apparel for women.

XENIA HIGH TEAM PLAYS FIRST GAME SATURDAY MORNING

Central High School basketball team will not play its first game in the seventh annual Greene County tournament at Antioch College, until the opening games Saturday morning when the local team will open the Saturday morning play opposed to Jamestown, at nine o'clock.

This was the result of the drawings of the teams for position, held at one o'clock Friday afternoon in the College Gymnasium. The first game of the tournament started at two o'clock Friday afternoon with the Yellow Springs High School girls team and the Cedarville High School girls' team breaking the ice.

The second game of the afternoon, scheduled to start at 2:50 o'clock, is between the Beavercreek High School and Osborn High School boys. At 3:40 o'clock the Jamestown High and Ross High Girls' teams play, winding up the afternoon games. At seven o'clock Friday evening, Beavercreek High School girls team will meet the winners of the Yellow Springs-Cedarville girls' game, and at 7:50 o'clock the Yellow Springs High School boys team, rated as strong contenders in the tournament, will play its first game with the Ross High team.

Jamestown and Xenia will mix it in the opener Saturday morning at nine o'clock, and will be followed immediately by the Bowersville and Cedarville High school boys' teams, playing at 9:50 o'clock. At 10:40 o'clock Saturday morning, the Osborn High girls' team will play the winners of the Jamestown-Ross High girls' team, and at one o'clock Saturday afternoon Bellbrook will open its tournament play by meeting the winners of the Beavercreek-Osborn High boys' games. Caesar Creek High boys, runners-up in the Central High School tournament, will meet the winners of the Yellow Springs-Ross High game at 1:50 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Games after this time have not been drawn as yet, as the contests from then will depend upon the number of teams left in the tournament and not eliminated. Xenia should have an easy time of it Saturday morning with Jamestown, and dopesters claim that the locals will go into the finals, with Yellow Springs High for the championship.

The tournament is being covered for the Gazette and Republican, by Arthur Bales, who will furnish the results of the play as quickly as possible to this paper.

BRING UP CASE AFTER NEARLY TEN YEARS' LITIGATION

After almost ten years of litigation, the case of H. W. Owens, Xenia architect, against the village of Wilmington, in which the plaintiff asks for judgment covering architect's fees, alleged due him for that length of time, the hearing of which began in the Wilmington courts, before Judge James W. Tarbell, of Georgetown, Tuesday, has been continued.

All the testimony on both sides was heard before the court adjourned Tuesday, and Judge Tarbell ordered that the attorneys for each side, submit their arguments in the case by written briefs. Attorney W. L. Miller, of this city, who represents Mr. Owens, will offer his brief first after a ten-day period and then G. P. Thorpe, of Wilmington, attorney for the village will file his brief.

The case grew out of the drawing of plans by Mr. Owens, for the Walker Memorial building in Wilmington, which at present is located between the New Martin Hotel and the Murphy Theater and occupied by the G. M. Rice furniture store. Mr. Walker left considerable money to be spent in the erection of a Memorial building to himself and to accommodate the village library.

Mr. Owens was retained by the village council to draw up plans for such a building, and he submitted a complete set of plans to that body. Opposition to the plans developed in the village through the desire of some of the citizens to make a store room of the building, and a new village council, opposed to the plans of the local architect was elected.

Since that time, efforts of Mr. Owens to collect the regular architect's fees for the plans proved unavailing, and several years ago he instituted suit through his attorney Mr. Miller, against the village for collection of the amount. Interest in the case having just come to a head with the hearing this week.

TOMATO DISEASE HARMFUL DURING WARM SEASON

A disease causing loss to tomato growers in greenhouses during the past season has been identified by the department of botany at the Ohio Experiment Station as gray mold drop, or Botrytis. It was found that the disease gained headway whenever moisture conditions in the greenhouse were excessive. The disease caused serious loss in houses which were not ventilated sufficiently.

Proper ventilation, and watering, however, has quickly checked development so that no new infection occurred, except where care was not observed in the removal of decayed fruit and diseased fruit spurs.

Under average greenhouse conditions, the disease does not frequently make its appearance, but during warm seasons similar to that experienced during the past winter, the disease might become quite destructive.

IT' JUST WONDERFUL, DECLARES MRS. EARLE

"Tanlac Has Made Me Feel Like A Different Person Altogether," Declares Chesapeake Woman.

"I have recommended Tanlac personally to a number of my friends and am glad to give it as public statement for what it may be worth to others," said Mrs. M. A. Earle, of Chesapeake, Ohio.

"About two years ago my stomach began to give me trouble. My appetite was poor and what little I did eat seemed to do me more harm than good, for gas formed on my stomach and bloated me up terribly. I would wake up in the night with a dry, parched feeling in my throat and in the roof of my mouth. It was seldom that I got a good night's sleep and I had a dull, tired, listless feeling all the time.

"But I declare Tanlac has got me to feeling like a different person altogether. Since taking it I have a fine appetite and can eat what I please and everything agrees with me perfectly, for I never feel a sign of indigestion and I just feel splendid all the time. Tanlac is just wonderful and I can't say too much for it."

THE FRONT PORCH IN WASHINGTON.

President Harding is most inconsiderate of the feelings of his critics and defamers. He not only upset all their predictions when he made his own cabinet selections and ran counter to the wishes of that Senate "obligarchy" which was to have ruled him, but has begun already to break hoary and time-honored precedents. For one thing, almost his first official act was to keep his platform pledges to co-operate with the Congress and with the leaders of his party in the Senate and House as the only certain means of securing unity of action and effectiveness in the formation and execution of government policies. And another and most picturesque bit of precedent-smashing was the manner in which the results of his conference with the congressional leaders were communicated to the waiting correspondents.

It has been the rule for years that while the President often talked freely to the newspapermen who had his confidence and who enjoyed the entree to the executive mansion, they were never to quote him directly. It was always to be "understood," or stated "on the highest authority," or said by some one "close to the President," but never "the President said." Yet President Harding shattered this artificial tradition when he emerged from his talk with the party leaders and, at midnight on the front porch of the White House, said in effect to the two or three score of correspondents in waiting: "Well, boys, here is what we talked about and decided upon." And they were straightway free to record and print precisely what the President told them and in his own words.

This is a wholesome change, and is in complete accord with the democratic simplicity that characterized Mr. Harding's induction into his high office. It augurs well for his administration that he by this means intends to keep close to the people, informing them at first hand and without red tape or circumlocution the things they have a right to know. It is a confidence that is by no means likely to be abused; and it should make for a better understanding, a more cordial feeling, than has prevailed during the austerities of the last eight years at the White House. —Philadelphia Public Ledger.

TAINTED MONEY.

The Federation of Labor finds little support for the condemnation of its educational committee of a recent Rockefeller gift of $70,000,000 to the General Education Fund. Some years ago the public might have joined in the criticism. Today there is a different attitude toward such donations. It may be that the oil king's millions are just as "tainted" as they ever were, and as the Federation or Labor officials say they are now; but the average citizen nowadays has an impression that the very best way to rid money of any kind of taint is to use it for a beneficent purpose.

Moreover, strictly speaking, no "taint" or "smirch" can affect money itself, no matter how that money is acquired. Money is a material thing, and morals have to do not with things but with people. A rich man may be "tainted," but not his riches; and if he is, it doubtless contributes to his own cleansing to distribute his riches in wise philanthropy. Alm-giving in all ages has been considered to have such an effect.

The underlying thought of the critics is, perhaps, that Mr. Rockefeller through such gifts may improperly influence the beneficiaries, thus spreading wrong ideals. There does not seem to be much danger of that. A large part of this donation goes for medical education. How can there be any corrupting influence in teaching young men and women the best way of curing and preventing disease? The rest will be used to increase the salaries of underpaid college professors.

The whole thing is absurd. If there is any power to be feared, it is ignorance. If there is any remedy for evil practices in business and public life, it is education. There used to be some people who objected to the use of Andrew Carnegie's money for library buildings, quite oblivious of the fact that every community so benefited was obliged to furnish the books itself, and it was the books, not the buildings, that were calculated to influence people's thinking. It is safe to say that every library Carnegie ever built contains books at variance with the donor's own economic principles and practices.

THE CAT AND DIPHTHERIA.

The idea that pet cats and dogs may take diphtheria infection from human beings and give it to other human beings may no longer be scouted as an "old wives' tale." The Journal of the American Medical Association reports that a medical authority isolated diphtheria germs, virulent to guinea pigs, from two cats which were pets of a person afflicted with a fatal case of the disease. Stray cats from the same neighborhood gave negative result. This would indicate that the pets had caught the infection from their mistress, and had the disease in the form contagious to humans themselves.

This is not a blanket argument against the keeping of pets, but it should act as a warning against caressing them unduly, holding them up to the face or failing to wash the hands after handling them.

It makes no difference whether owner or animal is well or ill. A little distance and plenty of soap and water mark the dividing line between security and the want of it.

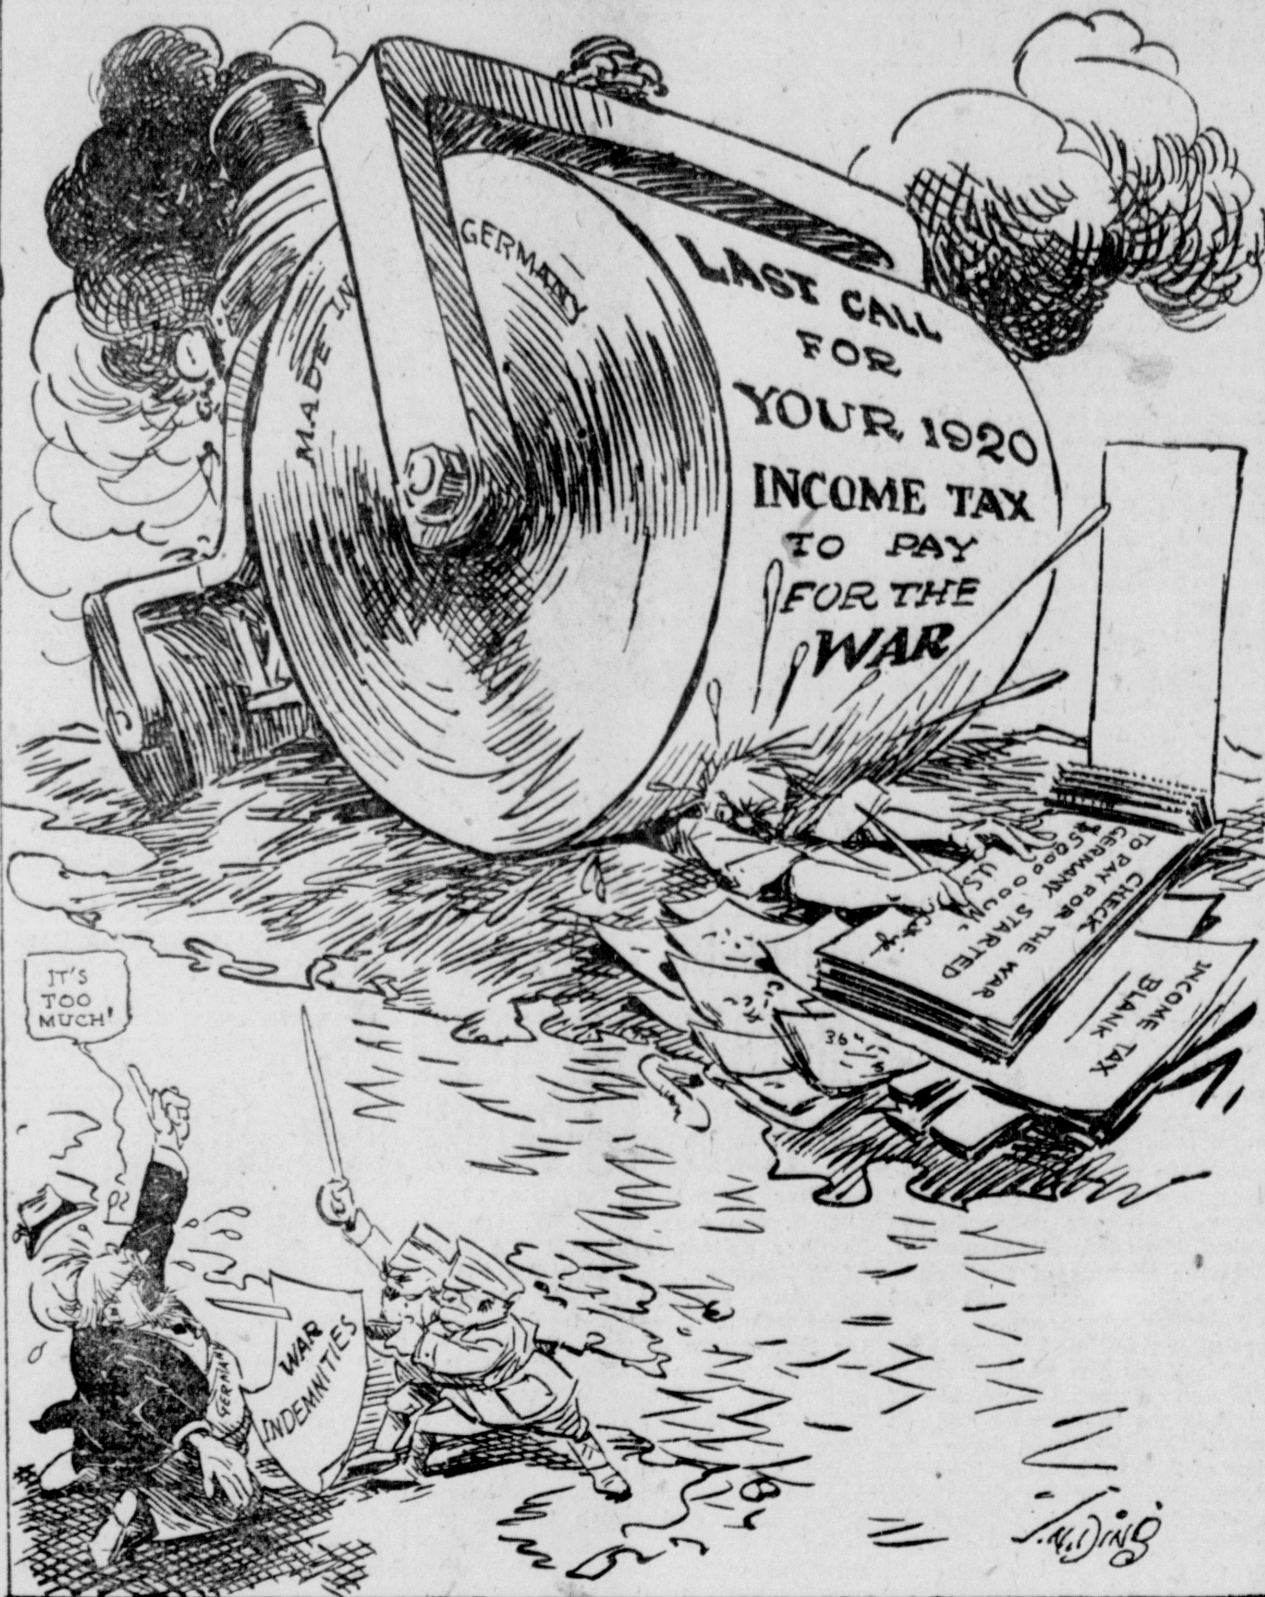

One close observer at Washington ventures the opinion that President Harding must choose between keeping peace with his Secretary of State, and his influence with his former senate colleagues, and so we shall see whether the first love is the strongest.

We often wonder why Herbert Hoover doesn't try a vacuum cleaner of his name to aid in raising Relief funds.

Time only will tell whether the new cabinet will hold all the necessary supplies.

The small boy is not the only one who wants to play hookey these spring days.

NOT EXACTLY THE PSYCHOLOGICAL MOMENT TO GAIN OUR SYMPATHY.

1901--Twenty Years Ago--1921

Mr. Clarence S. Frazer is getting about with considerable difficulty owing to an accident which he met while in Dayton yesterday. On his arrival in that city he alighted from the Rapid Transit car and stepped directly in front of another car on the Fifth Street line. He was badly bruised and covered with mud and was in quite a bad plight.

The arrangements have about been completed for the laying of the corner stone of the new court house, the ceremonies attending, to take place on next Friday, March the 15. Should the weather or prove favorable the occasion will be one of great interest and large numbers of visiting masses are expected to be present from neighboring cities.

The Republican primary election for city and township officers held Saturday aroused little interest owing to there being but few contests and a very light vote was polled. The only township office for which there was any contest that of trustee for which there were four candidates: John Eyer, Ed. Lighthouse, William Holt, were four candidates John Eyer, was nominated.

Is It Yours?

JOHN DORAN

March 11, 1907

John Doran, a well known author of the last century, was born in London of Irish parentage, in 1807. He was studious as a lad and after he finished college he was tutor in several distinguished families. As he grew older, his liking for literature grew also, but he "broke into" the literary game in a very modest manner by contributing sketches of foreign places to a London magazine, while he himself was traveling on the continent.

Through this he became associated with "The Literary Chronicle," a paper later incorporated with the famous "Athenaeum." Meanwhile he had been writing plays, and one, "Justice, or the Venetian Jew," was actually produced when he was 17. When he was 23 he was writing translations from French, German, Latin and Italian authors for the magazines.

Then his interest in history developed. He wrote a book called "Their Majesties' Servants," a story of the English stage from the time of the great actors in Shakespeare's theatre, to Edmund Kean—a book that sounds as though it might be dry but that is so beautifully done it is almost impossible to lay it down when one has started to read it.

He wrote a great many books about the lives of queens, a "History of Court Fools," "Knights and Their Days," "Monarchs Retired from Business," and many others on similar lines. He died when he was 71 years old.

MOTORAIDS

If your engine has a magneto and you wish to time it properly turn the engine over until the piston of number one cylinder is exactly at the top of its stroke, with both intake and exhaust valves closed. Disconnect the magneto from its drive and turn it over until the rotating arm in the distributor is on contact with and supplying current to the cable of number one cylinder.

Rotate the magneto shaft slightly back and forth until the contact points of the make and break mechanism are seen to be exactly at the point at which they separate, when the spark advance lever is in its most retarded position. Without changing either engine or magneto positions, connect the magneto to its drive by meeting the gears or engaging the coupling. This setting will give as late a spark as ever is used, but if a slightly earlier setting is desired, the magneto may be adjusted by turning it very slightly in the direction opposite to the way it runs.

Bare Walls of Crude Shanty House Mother in Childbirth

Tiny walls of the world's newborn set themselves up in strange and inauspicious places!

Tiny hands signal distress in the first paroxysm of fear attendant upon the advent into light do not always churn the air in a home of plenty.

Home in the truest sense of the word, may not always mean, the high ceilings and the tapestried walls. Clayboard walls, musty rafters, the pewter tea set, the china jardener, the old-fashioned clock, the trinkets that a lifetime of effort on the part of one body of people calling itself a family, has resulted in gathering together. These represent home to many.

There may be the humblest surroundings. The trundle bed halloved by the touch of infant hands, the blue cream pitcher that the association of a lifetime has sanctified, the worn cupboard with its array of assorted china, that would speak a sermon of the family communion of spirit were it permitted to talk. All bespeak the mystery of the worshipping of a family at the shrine called home.

Four bare walls, crudely constructed from store-box wood, humbly fitted with the poorest of furnishings, housed the mystery of the bringings of twins into the world here recently. Little or no preparation had been made for the passing of such a momentous event in the life of the family. Little or no accommodations were available for the pain racked woman who gave them birth.

In the little one-room home constructed by her husband with his own hands, she lay in the one bed, the place afforded while the five other children in the family, found fitful slumber and an uncomfortable haven on the bare floor. A physician, the great mediator in time of such moment, was hastily summoned by the nervous father. Seven doctors were called before one was found who was able to go. The night was one of foreboding, the wind harsh and chill, the roads almost impassable. Unable to drive his machine farther, the physician left it in the mud and trod alone to the house. There he participated in the birth of twins, with no conveniences whatever to aid. Not even water was available.

The situation was one that struck pity to his heart. The next day he took a fellow physician to the scene that he might see the conditions. But the good angel of mercy had anticipated the visit. The little place called home, had been transformed overnight. The utter creptude of the place was gone. In the single room, which was divided by a system of screens pitifully tended to shield the different portions of the home, a miracle had been worked.

Despite the forbidding appearance, the almost inaccessible situation of it and the foreboding conditions of the little home, the milk of human kindness had proven that it still existed in the hearts of some in a world that fortunately has not yet forgotten the meaning of that word. The little home had been cleaned and scrubbed, the children had been taken care of and the mother had had her wants attended to and the ordinary comforts supplied.

The Red Cross and the Social Service League had been responsible for the transformation. At the time of need, when the poor mother must have hesitated in the valley between life and death the presence of these untiring, unselfish and unprotesting workers, must have carried home to her the truth that there is a God in heaven and that all is right with the world.

True, infant voices pierce the air in many a place of humble surroundings. Yet they may learn to call it home, if their tiny heads may find their mother's arm, the softest pillow in the universe!

GOVERNMENT.

The cost of government's too great, we shudder at the figures sprung, and Jones, the voter, pays the freight and feels that he is being stung. Economy is thought a bore, it's not by governments desired; it takes nine men to do a chore that one could do, and not feel tired. The government can't buy a mule without ten miles of scarlet tape; inspectors round the critter fool, and write reports upon its shape; and vets report upon its looks, describe the places where it sweats; and forty clerks in forty books write down the findings of the vets. The mule would bring but little mon, if offered at a farmer's sale; but when our Uncle Sam gets done it costs him half a ton of kale. And everything our Uncle does is done the most expensive way; employees in his buildings buzz like flies upon a summer day. And statesmen windily orate, and grafters crowd the public trough, and Jones, he sadly pays the freight, and wonders where he will get off. Oh, you are Jones, and I am Jones, and we have bunions on our backs, and we have tired and aching bones, from toiling 'neath a beastly tax. The country for retrenchment groans, some pressing evils to abate; alas, my friends, we all are Jones, and Jones, you know, he pays the freight.

A DELICATE PERFUME

A great many of my younger readers seem to think that the question of perfume is a very important one and I suspect that they are right. For certainly there is nothing worse than to be constantly in the company of somebody who uses strong perfumery in lavish quantities. A good rule to remember is that no perfume is always all right. Too much perfume is always all wrong. If you must economize the first place to begin is in the matter of perfumery.

And I might say also that if you are going to be extravagant the first place to begin is in the matter of perfumery, because any perfume or sachet that is purchased should be of the very best quality. There is never any excuse for cheap perfumes.

It is exceedingly difficult to make perfumes at home. I have any number of formulas but I find from the chemists that it is almost impossible to fill them, and that some of them are very expensive indeed. Most people who live in the country make themselves rose jars, because of their delightful odor and some women use the petals of other flowers in the same way.

As a general thing I think that the nicest way for a girl to give all her personal belongings the delicate scent that she prefers would be by the use of sachet bags. Good sachet powder is not necessarily expensive and a little of it, folded into a soft puff of absorbent cotton and made into a sachet bag is a convenient way of using this powder. These little bags can be slipped among her lingerie, into her traveling bags or even carried in the pockets of her coat. The fragrance from them will be noticeable, yet not sufficiently noticeable to be too obvious. After all, the worst crime in the use of perfumery is that the odor becomes too obvious.

C. H. G.—If you have a soft and tender voice, you should be rather pleased with it, but if it is weak and without character (which is entirely a different matter) then you should take exercises to strengthen it. Deep breathing exercises will be very good, particularly deep breathing exercises while you are walking swiftly through the open air, or while you are running or climbing. Another good thing to remember is to enunciate very clearly then you will always be heard and understood, no matter how soft your voice may be.

Frenchy F.—If you will take particularly good care of your complexion, giving yourself a daily stimulating treatment, the marks of the pimples will disappear in a few months. Tomorrow—Reduction Suggestions.

BEAUTIFUL FEET IN CHICAGO? HERE'S THE UNCOVERED TRUTH

Chicago, March 10—The most perfect feet in Chicago has been found. It belongs to Miss Elizabeth Chapman, nineteen-year-old blonde, who wears a 4 1/2 size shoe and whose prize "dog" measures just eight inches in length. It is three inches wide. The outer arch makes an impression of 1 1/4 inches and the heel at the widest part is only two inches. Miss Chapman won her title in the Beauty Mart foot contest at the Coliseum, in which 6,000 pairs of prize feet were displayed. The judges were Drs. William M. Scholl, H. J. Crane and J. H. Wilhite. The Coliseum contest is the fifth in which Miss Chapman has carried off the prize. She is a student and despite her perfect feet has no desire to go on the stage, she declares. Miss Ruth Donahue, a Peoria, Ill., student, took second prize in the Coliseum contest.

ASK COMMISSION FOR IMPROVEMENTS ON NEW ADDITION

Petitions asking improvements in the Dodds addition were presented to the city commission Thursday night by lot owners in that subdivision.

The petitions were signed by practically every property owner in the new addition, and ask the improvements suggested at the lot owners' meeting several weeks ago, of sidewalks, and curbs, sanitary sewers, and grading and graveling of the streets.

The commission took no action on the petitions at once but will investigate the city's share of the cost of these improvements.

A proposition was offered the city's share of the cost of these improvements.

A proposition was offered the city commission Thursday night to purchase three of the old water company boilers at $1,100 for the three. The proposition was tabled.

COURT NEWS

Probate Judge J. Carl Marshall has found that there is no inheritance tax due in the case of the estate of Joseph Garrard. The net value of the estate is placed at $3,972.90 and the widow, Amanda Garrard, executrix, is sole beneficiary during her life time. At her death the estate passes to Anna and J. H. Garrard.

The will of Eliza Hartsock, admitted to Probate by Judge J. Carl Marshall Thursday names her son, Edward G. Hartsock, sole beneficiary of the entire estate after the debts are paid. E. V. Barnhart of Waynesville, is appointed executor and empowered to sell any real estate and to pay all debts, D. F. Smith, Jacob Scott and A. B. Norris, were appointed appraisers by the court.

In the event that the case of Charles Edward Smith against Frank Miller, as administrator of the estate of John Miller, which is being heard by Judge R. L. Gowdy, before the petit jury in Common Pleas Court, is concluded Friday, another damage action involving considerable less money, however, will start immediately.

The case of Timothy Mangan against Cal and Carrie Clark, asking damages in the sum of $150 is docketed to be heard Friday. However the Smith against Miller case was not concluded Thursday evening and the case of Mangan against Clark will probably be delayed until its conclusion. About thirty witnesses have been examined in the

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Menthosulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm.

It never fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

"Who should proceed in going up stairs, the man or the woman?" asked Joe. "There is some difference of opinion on this point but with most people it is felt that the man should follow the woman up stairs to aid her should she trip or fall," said his father.

REPUBLICANS PICK SENATE OFFICIALS; THESE MEN ARE RE-ELECTED TO POSTS

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, floor leader, and other Republican officers of the senate organization have been re-elected without opposition. Not only was Senator Lodge re-elected as floor leader, but the senate Republicans again chose Senator Cummins of Iowa for president pro-tempore of the senate and Senator Curtis of Kansas for vice chairman, or assistant leader and party whip. In number and personnel all senate committees are to be reduced under new senate rules ordered for this session.

AMERICAN LEGION TO STAGE FORMAL OPENING MARCH 23

Plans for a formal opening and housewarming of the new quarters to Joseph P. Foody Post, No. 95 American Legion are now being made, according to the announcement made at the meeting of the organization Thursday evening.

It is planned to hold the opening on the evening of March 23, and the entertainment committee of the post in conjunction with the Ladies Auxiliary is now working on the program for that day. It is expected that at least one officer of the state organization will be present as a speaker, and the Post promises to make the opening a red letter day in its history.

At the meeting Thursday night, the Adjutant was authorized to secure a number of government rifles and a quantity of ammunition from the arsenal at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, which will be used in military funerals and other occasions.

The announcement of the purchase of a silk flag and standard for the local Post with funds kindly contributed by the fraternal organizations of the city was made at the meeting Thursday.

Impeachment Charges Dropped

TO BE SMART CHILDREN'S EASTER FROCKS MUST BE WHITE

Shops which specialize in children's clothing are featuring white for Easter frocks. It is quite appropriate, too, as it is not only symbolical for the innocence of youth, but for the season of the year. Here are three very attractive models which will delight any little miss. The frock at the left is made of white georgette over a slip of white net. The skirt is trimmed with fluted georgette ruffles and the collar and sleeves are trimmed with the same. A high waistline is neck and sleeves. A blue satin sash which ties in front and falls to the sides, where the ends are caught in tiny rosettes, forms the trimming.

Organdy fashions the frock in the center, which is designed for the junior miss. Here, too, ruffles form the trimming. They are placed on the skirt just above the hem and thus make the tall girl look shorter. A bit of lace at the neck and ribbon rosettes form a dainty trimming touch.

ELECT OFFICERS OF X-ASSOCIATION; ADAIR PRESIDENT

James D. Adair, temporary president of the X-association, an organization of men who won their letters in athletics at Central High was elected permanent president, at the meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night.

James Savage was named vice president of the Association and J. Perry Shumaker was elected secretary and treasurer. The executive committee will consist of the three officers and George Geyer and Dr. C. H. Denner, elected for two years and Fred Schultz and Harold Confer, elected for one year.

The election of these officers followed the reading of the by laws by George Geyer, chairman of that committee, and the immediate adoption of the by-laws as prepared by the committee.

Plans for a banquet to be held at the Chamber of Commerce within the next few weeks were discussed, and a committee was named to take charge of preparations for the affair. Arthur Bales was named chairman of the committee which consists also of John Kiernan and Raymond A. Higgins.

In an effort to secure another big high school basketball game before the season closes, a committee consisting of Harold Confer, chairman, J. Perry Shumaker and George Geyer was appointed. Clarence K. Horen was appointed chairman of another committee to select his own committee members to make plans for a basketball game between the married and single men.

MERRIMENT AND MUSIC IS OFFERED

The success with which "My Soldier Girl", the musical comedy coming to the Opera House Saturday night, met on its last appearance here last season, assures that patrons of the house will welcome the return of the piece to this city.

It will be good news to local theatergoers also that Billy Moore and Billy Murphy, the two supreme eccentric comedians are still with LeComte and Flesher and will appear in this year's offering at the Opera House. Moore is an Essanay screen product, giving up the silent drama to go into the legitimate five years ago. His companion was raised from a third-rate comedian with LeComte and Flesher's Chicago successes, when his natural ability became known, and has since been playing with Moore.

The cast is elaborately gowned and the production offers much in the way of music and merriment. "My Soldier Girl" plays here through arrangements with the Standard Amusement Company.

EIGHTEEN GREENE COUNTY BASKETBALL TEAMS GATHER FOR ANNUAL TOURNAMENT

Eighteen Greene County basketball teams composed of 11 boys' teams and seven girls' teams, gathered at Antioch College Yellow Springs, Friday at 12 o'clock noon, for the seventh annual county basketball tournament.

In the six previous years in which the tournament has been operated, it is not believed that so much interest has been displayed in it as this year. In fact for the first time in the history of the tournament, it appears that Yellow Springs High School will at least be in the finals, and is being rated with Central High of this city as one of the strongest contenders for the championship in the boys' division.

In the season of 1915, when the basketball tournament was started, Xenia and Jamestown went into the final games, Xenia winning and having the honor of securing first hold of the silver loving cup. 1916, Xenia and Osborn went into the final games of the tournament, and Osborn defeated Xenia. In 1917, the Osborn High lads repeated the same trick, winning the championship for the second time in succession.

In 1918 season, Xenia met Cedarville in the deciding game, and Cedarville was returned winner. In 1919, this situation was reversed, the same two teams meeting in the final game, and Xenia winning over Cedarville. Last year, Beaver Creek High, dark horses in the meet came through and defeated Xenia in the final game.

In the six years that the tournament has been conducted, Xenia has never been outside the money, and has played in the final and deciding game each year. In all that time Yellow Springs High has not won a championship nor has furnished a team that was a runner up in the meet. This year however, the Yellow Springs tribe presents the most formidable tribe that has represented the dable tribe that has represented the school in years, and although defeated by Xenia in the state tournament at Delaware they are confident of trimming the locals in the local meet. Osborn High is also figured as possible championship material, and Cedar Creek High, runners up in the tournament here, is rated well in the meet.

Cosch Confer's blue and white team will go into the meet handicapped by the loss of the team of Elmer Owens, whose playing has been protested by the yellow Springs authorities. It is alleged he has passed the 21 year old age limit, and for that reason the local authorities will not play him in the tournament. Marcus McCallister will probably take his place in the lineup.

Play of all games will be decided by drawing alone this year, and should Xenia meet Yellow Springs in the opener, this may turn out to be the deciding game of the series. There will be no fixed games however.

FINDS BRIDE-TO-BE WITH WRECK VICTIMS

Porter, Ind., March 11.—George Ganst, fifty five, a widower, was waiting for Mrs. Theodosia Haskins, fifty-five, a Chicago widow, in Niles, Mich., when the news of the recent Michigan Central-New York rail horror here reached him. She was to have arrived for their wedding.

Reaching here, Ganst hastened to the morgue. He was unable to recognize any of the bodies, but his head dropped when he saw a ring on the finger of one. It was the engagement token he had given Mrs. Haskins. A pearl necklace and $100 in cash she carried were missing. After identifying the ring, he stared in silence at the body, then gasped.

POISONING DYES IN FURS CAUSE SKIN POISONING

Chicago, March 11.—Now it's "fur poisoning."

Health Commissioner John Dill Robertson is investigating eleven cases of skin disease reported here which is believed to have been caused by poisonous dyes in women's furs. An effort also is being made to find the manufacturer of the tainted furs.

"So far," said Dr. J. P. Kilecourse, city pure food expert, "we have been unable to ascertain that there are any of these poisonous furs handled in Chicago. Appar only they all come from New York. Chicago concerns which make furs into garments buy the skins either in St. Louis or New York. The authorities of these two cities should investigate the use of cheap and poisonous fur dyes."

MANUFACTURER IS FREED
New York, March 11.—Julius Schwil, wealthy malt manufacturer of Chicago detained by the police on suspicion after money orders stolen from the American Express Co. were alleged to have been found in his pocket by Magistrate Frothingham, who said felonious intent was not established.

THE BED DAVENPORT

Increases home capacity, decreases rent and fuel bills. Wonderful thing, isn't it, in these days of house shortage, fuel shortage, high rents, high cost of building and high cost of coal?

A bed davenport will grace your living room, provide a place for three to sit in comfort and for one to lounge at ease during the day. In addition, it will provide sleeping accommodations for two when not in use as a seat.

In effect a bed davenport adds a room to your home; in fact, it reduces your rent and fuel expense. A smaller place at a lower rental—or at a lower cost to build—is made to supply the accommodations of a larger place.

DOES ADVERTISING PAY--- WHO?

Six Profits
Lost Energy
The Big Answer
Out of the Picture
Millions Like You

It's a question you sometimes hear, even now—"Does advertising pay?"

Invariably however, as it is asked, it means "Does advertising pay the advertiser?" when after all that isn't the most important thing at all.

The really vital question—the one that goes to the heart of the whole subject—is whether advertising pays you, the buyer, and the millions of others like you who make up the great American market.

If advertising does not pay you, then it can never really pay the manufacturers, merchants and others who to-day show their faith in it to the extent of many millions of dollars.

If it did not pay you, the ultimate consumer, it could never have become a permanent force in the nation's business life.

Unless there is in advertising some definite, unmistakable advantage for you as a purchaser you would long ago have ceased to respond to it, and it would have begun to fade out of the picture.

That thousands are now being spent on advertising where not long ago there were but hundreds—that the nation's advertising appropriation mounts year by year to magnificent figures—that advertising is now regarded as a permanent and important factor in a vast number of various kinds of businesses, large and small, is more than an indication of the answer to the question "Does advertising pay you?"

It pays you in better goods for no higher, often lower, price than that of inferior goods.

It pays you in the protection it affords against the unscrupulous.

It pays you in time and energy saved when you do your buying.

It pays you by improving the character of selling and service.

It pays you by establishing definite and higher standards of quality.

It pays you by keeping you constantly informed of new products that will save your money, your time or your labor—products that will promote your welfare—products that will add to your happiness.

These are some of the profits which advertising places in your grasp. To take them you need do but two things—read advertising and buy advertised goods—goods with the name or the brand of the maker plainly stamped upon them, a visible pledge of his integrity and honesty of purpose.

Advertising is not only a pro-

THEY WILL BE MISSED IN DES MOINES WHEN THEY JOIN NEW CABINET CIRCLE

Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, at desk, and her daughter, Miss Mary.

This is the latest picture of Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, wife of the new secretary of agriculture, and their daughter, Miss Mary Wallace. The hospitality of the Wallace home is well known in Des Moines and Mrs. Wallace presides as a very gracious hostess. She likes people, is well up on public affairs and will probably be one of the leaders among the cabinet circles. Miss Mary is a vivacious girl who adds much life to the Wallace household. They will both be missed by their Des Moines friends.

tection to the buyer—not only a reducer of prices and an increaser of values to the public, but it is of the greatest educational value.

In ten years advertising induced more people to care for their teeth and use safe dental creams than the advice of the dentists for over half a century.

Advertising has given the country boy the styles of the city. It has put city conveniences in country homes. It has increased the standards of living everywhere, not only by pointing the way to these conveniences, by lowering the costs.

Buy from merchants who advertise, and buy the brands which are advertised.

For the brand is a guarantee of satisfaction. It is a protection that insures quality, and assures the greatest value for every cent of the purchase price.

ADMITS IMPROVEMENT WAS BIG SURPRISE

Had no idea Drecto could relieve gastritis and constipation so fast.

"I admit I was surprised how quickly Drecto relieved me of gastritis, constipation, dizziness and headache," said Mr. David Lee of 468 Mulberry St., Chillicothe, Ohio.

Drecto is the pure extract of herbal plants carefully combined to produce best results and has proven its powers in many cases, to overcome gas in the stomach, poor digestion, sluggish liver, weak kidneys, excitable nerves and chronic constipation. The action is usually prompt and effects lasting. All druggists sell Drecto specially introduced here at Sohn's Drug Store.

DINNER STORIES

Yesterday everything had been happy. Tonight they sat at the extreme end of the sofa, in unbroken silence.

Harold could not fathom the cause. Had he not written a poem in his honor?

"Mr. Holt," said Ethel at length, "do you know that the feet of the Statue of Liberty, in New York harbor, measure 16 feet 5 inches?"

"So I have heard," she continued, giving him an icy stare. "The nose is 4 feet 6 inches long; the mouth is a yard across; the thickness of the head is 10 feet. Did you know these facts?"

"Yes," she demanded frigidly, "why you state in your poem that I remind you of the Statue of Liberty?"

"It is remarkable," said Mr. Gruntler, "how mean some people are. I had with me on a fishing trip two friends, who evidently were familiar with my reputation as an angler."

"Before starting one of them made the following suggestion: 'We will agree that the first man that catches a fish must treat the crowd.'"

"I suppose you lost, then?" remarked the friend.

"Oh, no," replied Mr. Gruntler. "I didn't have any bait on my hook!"

The weary traveler and his wife arrived at the country inn after a long and tiresome tramp through the country. The husband went to the innkeeper and asked him what he could do for them.

"I am very sorry," replied the innkeeper, "but I have but one meal left."

Buick Valve In Head Motor Cars

Today, as never before, a motor car is purchased as a dividend earning investment—dividends of utility, service, economy and resale value.

The twenty years performance record of Buick Cars and the power and reliability of the famed Buick Valve-In-Head motor are thoroughly familiar to the public and explain, in a measure why Buick is so generally recognized as a sound investment.

The low stream-lines of the 1921 Models give these cars an appearance of grace and dignity. A greater roominess of tonneau and space provided adds motoring comfort. Both elements are well expressed in the new 1921 Models.

When you buy a Buick car you are assured of service wherever you go, as there are Buick Service Stations in any City.

Buick owners will get better service by going where they see the Buick sign.

It does not look much like "depression," does it? Many experts now believe the industrial crisis is past.

U. S. ACCEPTS MORGAN HOME IN LONDON AS RESIDENCE FOR AMBASSADORS THERE

J. P. Morgan and view of the Morgan home at Prince's Gate, London, given to U. S. for ambassadorial home.

The old Morgan home in London, internationally known as the British residence of the financier, has been accepted by the U. S. government as a permanent home for the use of U. S. ambassadors at the British capital. The younger J. P. Morgan offered the home a year or more ago. The matter had been under consideration until recently. The house at one time was the repository of many costly art treasures.

DRAMATIC TURN TAKEN BY TRIAL

Mingo County Courthouse, Washington, W. Va., March 10.—"Thou art the man!"

The trigger trial is taking a dramatic turn. Accused who turned accuser is now accused again. The defense has begun to train its guns on Isaac Brewer who was originally indicted with Sid Hatfield and 16 others but was freed for turning state's evidence.

One by one, witnesses are taking the stand for the defense and one did so yesterday, two in today's forenoon session. All three flatly charged they saw Isaac Brewer kill Detective Albert Felts, for whose murder the 17 men from Matewan are being tried for their lives. All three admitted having withheld this from the grand jury because they "didn't want to indict Brewer." Now that Brewer is a star witness for the prosecution they wouldn't swear a lie for him.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Apple Salad—Pare four medium apples and cut in dice, chop one-half cup walnut meats in small pieces, cut one-quarter cup celery in small pieces. Mix well together and serve on lettuce with lemon dressing.

Lemon Dressing—One cup sugar, one cup boiling water, two tablespoons corn starch, pinch salt, juice one lemon. Mix sugar and corn starch, add boiling water slowly, stirring constantly. Boil five minutes, take from fire, add lemon juice. This is different and delicious on any fruit salad.

Stuffed Flank Steak—Select a medium sized steak, dredge with flour and then chop one-quarter pound bacon in small pieces, add two lemons, one-half of a green pepper chopped fine. Place all on the steak, add salt over all, then roll and tie in place with string. Brown in hot skillet and then add boiling water to half cover steak. Simmer for three hours. Baste occasionally.

Angel Kiss Pudding—One-half pint table cream (whipped), one-half cup sugar, one-quarter cup of water, one tablespoon vanilla, whites two eggs (beaten dry), one teaspoon gelatine soaked in one tablespoon cold water five minutes. Boil sugar and water till it spins a thread, pour on stiffly beaten whites, add gelatine and cream, then vanilla.

Milk Toast—Heat the milk and toast the bread. Then cut the toast in little blocks and spread each piece liberally with a good creamery butter. Place a little Caledonian cream on top of these little islands and then let them float in a milky lake. The bread should be whole wheat and a day old.

DISHES FOR LENT

Grilled Mackerel—Use one large mackerel, two tablespoons olive oil, one tablespoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, one-half teaspoon minced onion, and salt and pepper.

Wash, clean and dry fish thoroughly. Score the back with a sharp knife and pour the dressing over. Let stand an hour, turning fish frequently. Drain and broil from 12 to 15 minutes, according to size. Serve with parsley or hollandaise sauce.

Salt Fish and Parsnips—Freshen salt cod steaks, and boil till tender. Serve in a border of boiled parsnips with egg sauce poured over the whole.

TRY THESE.

A tablespoon of vinegar in the water in which chicken is being cooked will make the meat tender. The same method may be advantageously used in cooking other meats than fowl.

Water in which potatoes, rice or macaroni have been cooked is as good as milk for making gravies. One quart of tomatoes will serve four persons.

Use honey to sweeten custards.

He has been conducting a cattle ranch at Buckeye, Tex. The body is en route home.

THE WOMAN HE MARRIED

A BOY'S KEEN INTUITION
Chapter 12

Junior had gone back to school and life seemed suddenly dreary, cold, and sorrowful. I was terribly unhappy over Dick, but when Junior was with me I could not be entirely miserable. His boyish gravity, his high spirits were a constant joy to me.

Yet in a way I did not regret his going. He was old enough now to notice when I was hurt or worried, said and anxious. At times I thought he suspected the cause. Several times he had made slangy, boyish, disparaging remarks about Juanita. They were made in a joking way, yet I thought that underneath the fun there lay a certain knowledge.

In every way I could I had tried to combat this idea. I invited Juanita to luncheon to dinner, and to play bridge in the evening. I laughed at her and with her. I talked openly before them and Junior of their intimacy when writing their novel—a sore spot with Dick if not with Juanita. But much as I loved Junior, glad as I had been to have him with me, it was a relief in a way to let him go. His sharp eyes could no longer be upon his father. I had imagined once or twice that he had lost some of the respect in which he always had held Dick some of the pride in his accomplishments. Yet it had been nothing tangible, simply boyish nonsense. So I tried to assure myself.

"We must be very careful now, Dick, Junior is becoming very observing," I remarked as we returned from the station after bidding him goodbye. He would not be at home again for several months.

"Careful of what?"

"Of what we say and do. It is queer the notions a boy gets. He used to be fond of Juanita, but I really think he dislikes her—sees through her." "Sees through her?"—in a questioning way, yet as if he scarcely realized what he said.

"Yes, her playing to the gallery—as he puts it—wearing freak clothes, doing things so outrageous in many ways. Boys are rather old-fashioned, I guess—boys of Junior's age."

It may have been beneath a woman's a wife's, dignity to disparage a rival as I was doing. But it seemed to me the only way I could save my pride, and not let Dick know I was jealous, fearful.

I knew only too well that if I ever let him know I had seen Juanita in his arms it would be hard to live with him, afterward hard for both of us. I was not the sort who could ignore such knowledge that could go on as if I did not know it—if Dick were aware I knew of his disloyalty—although I did not yet give it that name. I called it his foolish infatuation, when I did name it.

I worked intermittently at this time. I refused contracts that took me too much from home.

"Come on, Dick let's take a walk," I would often now interdict him, where before I had hesitated. "You have lots of time to write. Let's take life leisurely for a while."

"Yes, I admitted. "I do work fairly steadily, but you over-worked on your book. And having Juanita with you, you would have many times done much better work alone. You see, there is where I have the advantage. I don't have anyone interrupting me."

"I wouldn't call her trying to help interrupting."

"Perhaps not, yet she didn't help—and I am sure that had you continued trying to work with her your imagination would suffer, your work would deteriorate. Not that Juanita isn't lovely to look at, but she certainly isn't good for a man of genius like yourself. She would soon kill it in you." I always mentioned her looks, or her clothes as being perfect. I would not disparage her in a way to make Dick think me jealous, but would place it all upon the detriment she was to his work.

Like all—or most writers, Dick was immensely fascinated with his own ideas, his ability to express them. At first he had been timid, but long before he met Juanita that had worn off and he had grown sure he had found his métier—that he was bound to be a successful author.

The failure of the book, the scathing criticisms had hurt him, wounded his self-esteem, more than he was willing to acknowledge. That it was Juanita's part in the book that had caused its rejection was a weapon of which I made good use, while never letting him see I was using it.

I planned all sort of things to interest him. I had a breakfast room screened off from the porch and we took our morning meal out there. We now had a little Japanese maid, and I could make myself attractive even so early. But the keynote of all I wore was simplicity. I never strained after effect, but wore dainty washable clothes that I kept crisp and fresh.

"It is all right for Juanita who is single, and has loads of time on her hands, to dress in such artistic messiness," I remarked. "It is one way to attract attention. Anyway it is becoming and she is wise to do it." As usual after making such a "catty" remark, I praised her.
